STATE ITEMS.

STROUDSBURG is to have a street railway.

JOHN DEALL is to be hung in Reading on Friday next.

ELK county is said to have the largest tannery in the world. Its capacity for sole leather is too hundred thousand sides a year.

DAVID HOUK, of Shenango township, Lawrence county, was kicked on the leg by a colt a fortnight ago, and died from the effects thereof on Sunday.

A NINE year old son of Samuel Mummert, of Heidelberg, York county, went fishing on Sunday week, while his father was at church. The body was found in the afternoon.

A NEW well on the Clarion river, about half a mile from the mouth, has been tested, and is yielding oil in paying quantities—some estimating its daily production as high as ten barrels.

A LITTLE child of Henry Rossman, Chambersburg, was smothered in its crib on Thursday evening last; the mother had left the child sleeping, but coming to the crib some time after, found it dead, lying on his face.

THREE men set fire to the mountain forests in several places in the South Mountain, near Gettysburg. The fire was very disastrous, and the neighbors think it will only be the beginning of a series of disasters if the incendiaries can be caught.

POSTAL changes: Ridgeburg, Bradford county, A. H. Voorhis, vice J. Hammond, resigned; President, Venango county, E. E. Clapp, vice William Richard, resigned; Shaw's Landing, Crawford county, A. S. Beatty, vice E. A. Morgan, resigned.

The Clarion Democrat says:

SINCE the big strike at Brady's Bend, many have concluded that the wells along the Clarion should be put down between 1,100 and 1,200 feet—taking into consideration the distance between the coal measures and the third sand rock.

THE Bradford Reporter says on Monday last, a son of Dr. Drake, of Granville, was thrown from a cast iron grain roller and instantly killed. The boy struck one of the horses, causing him to jump and throw him in front of the roller, when it crushed him, producing death immediately.

THE Mercer Dispatch say: On Wednesday night of last week, between the hours of twelve and one o'clock, the engine and hoisting houses and the surrounding buildings at J. D. Risher & Co.'s coal works, at Mt. Morris, near West Middlesex, were destroyed by fire. Loss $4,000. No insurance.

THE Clarion River Oil Company torpedoed their well at Blyson, on last Tuesday. The water was not sufficiently exhausted, and the casing was blown up, and dropped down into the well, and at last accounts had not been taken out. Some oil was thrown out by the explosion, and the indications are favorable.

THE woods opposite this place were set on fire on Sunday last, and have been burning ever since. While the spectacle presented each evening is grand, it seems a great pity, to have the beauty of the mountain side destroyed, and persons who are guilty of causing the fire should be punished.—Bradford Reporter.

THE Scranton Republican says the mountains around White Haven have been burning, and there, too, destruction of property has followed. On Wednesday the flames approached the line of the railroad, and caused some detention to the trains, some of which had to run a gauntlet of fire. The large lumbering establishments of McKean & Staddard and Braden & Co. caught fire, and were partly consumed. It is estimated that half a million feet of lumber were burned belonging to these two firms, valued at $20 per thousand. For a time fears were entertained for the safety of the town.

OHIO ITEMS.

THE Lorani county Woman's Suffrage Association has fifty two members.

THE salt well at Sugar Creek will be started this week. The water is strong and abundant.

DOVER furnace, which has been in blast for two years will be blown out for repairs next week.

THE rolling stock for the Pittsburgh and Marietta Railroad, from Marietta to Caldwell, has been contracted for.

FOR the year ending March 31, 1870, Ohio was the second State in the Union in contributions to the American Bible Society.

THE C. C. C. & I. Railway has raised its passenger conductors' wages to $125 per month and abolished all patent "checks" upon their honesty.

JUDGE PAINE, of Cleveland, has decided that a debt made for intoxicating liquors sold, to be sold at retail, cannot be collected by the laws of Ohio.

AT Springfield, Sunday, a six year old son of Samuel Alexander was drowned by tumbling into Lagonda creek from a bank where his parents had forbidden him to go.

THE new Power House in Zanesville was pretty badly wrecked on Friday by the explosion of a boiler used in the house. The fireman was badly and the engineer slightly hurt.

THE market house at Gallipolis, O., was burned last Thursday morning. One man, imprisoned in the station house in the same building, was burned to a crisp. It was the work of an incendiary.

THE wheat crop throughout this portion of Ohio is reported to be doing finely. Should neither fly nor mildew intervene to blight the prospect, an abundant harvest is anticipated.—Tuscarawas Chronicle.

AT Castalia, Erie county, Saturday, Mrs. Thos. McCarty and her daughter Mrs. W. Dwight were fatally burned by the breaking of a lamp they were filling and the ignition and explosion of the oil—or rather its gas merely.

THE Tuscarawas Advocate says the certificate of the Lake Branch of the Baltimore, Pittsburgh and Continental Railroad was filed at the Secretary of State's office at Columbus on Friday last. The proposed road is to extend from Elyria, in Lorain county, through the counties of Medina, Wayne, Stark, Tuscarawas, Harrison and Belmont, to Belmont station on the Central Ohio Railroad. We are not informed as to who the corporation are.

WEST VIRGINIA.

PARKERSBURG is to have a large carriage factory.

THE new University buildings at Morgantown will be finished by the first of June.

A LITTLE child about seven miles from Grafton was run over and killed by the cars one day last week.

THE State Republican Convention of West Virginia is called to meet at Parkersburg on the 22d of June.

THERE is an old lady in Monongalia county who has lived for 107 years, she is thought to be the oldest inhabitant thereabouts.

CLARKSBURG Democratic politicians are trying to control the negro vote, but Sambo "can't see it." Harrison county will go the straight Republican ticket this fall, along with Monongalia, Preston, Taylor, and her other sister counties.

THE Morgantown Post says: General Witcher is likely to be nominated for Congress in the 3d District. General Duval's claims are urged for re-nomination in the 2d District, and Mr. McGrew will doubtless be re-elected from our District.

THOMAS HOWARD, Republican, was elected from the Twenty-fifth district—Allegheny county—for one year, to fill the unexpired term of Russell Errett. Mr. Howard is a gentleman of very decided ability. He has shown high qualities for the Senatorial position, and we presume there will be no opposition to his renomination and election.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

CHINAMEN resort to all sorts of expedients for smuggling opium into San Francisco. Seven hundred pounds have been discovered and seized since the arrival of the last steamer from China. The smugglers sink large quantities of it in the bay, near the steamer, and after several days take it up again. The Customs officers found two hundred pounds in one bale, sunk to the bottom with sixty pounds of lead.

THE Grand Jury of Washington county, Ga., thus speaks of the state of feeling existing between the employer and employe: "We are gratified to note the increase of confidence and good feeling between planters and their employes; and notwithstanding the unsettled condition of the country and the influence brought to bear upon the susceptibility and ignorence of the latter class, they are conducting themselves well, and indeed deserve our commendation.

A SAN FRANCISCO correspondent says: "I presume in no city of the United States (unless it be New Orleans) is Sunday so universally regarded as a holiday as in San Francisco. Picnics, yachting parties, horse races, target shooting—anything you can mention—they have here on Sunday. During the season probably not less than twenty thousand people leave the city to attend some such scene of festivity. It is a perfect paradise here for sinners—and they enjoy it."

MR. EMILE LEFRANC, of New Orleans, has been for some time engaged in perfecting a machine for hacking and cleaning the ramie plant, which he is confident will prove a success. The cloth made of ramie is conceded to be superior to cotton cloth, where the ramie has been thoroughly cleaned. This Mr. Lefranc feels sure his machine will do. With a mode of cheap hacking and cleaning, it is certain that the ramie will prove a very profitable crop.

A RAILWAY across Honduras, from the Pacific to the Gulf, has now one thousand two hundred men engaged in its construction, and is expected to be finished in the summer of 1871. A contract to lay down a telegraph cable from Key West to Port Callabos—the Atlantic terminus of the railroad, has also been made, and semi-monthly steamers are now running between that point and New Orleans. Simultaneously with the opening of the railroad, a line of ocean steamers will be started between San Francisco and the bay of Fonseca, the Pacific terminus.

OUR GERMAN PRESS.

The Freiheits Freund asks if in this land where we are in the habit of pluming ourselves upon our superiority to other people in regard to enlightenment and intelligence, it is not possible that the absurd prejudice in regard to the color of the skin may now disappear. One could easily believe this to be an impossibility when one sees that men of science are immersed over head and ears in this prejudice, over which the simplest peasant boy in Europe would make merry. The recent proceedings of the American Medical Association in Washington, in refusing to admit colored delegates called forth these remarks, which conclude as follows: "The medical gentlemen in Washington will with difficulty find any other reason for this than that pure, ignorant prejudice against the black skin, which they hold in common with the most uncultured scum of the people."

The Volksblatt, in an article on "American Securities in Germany," says Germany owns from four to five hundred millions of dollars' worth of American 5-20 Government bonds. Many persons made enormously by investing their money in these papers when they were greatly depreciated. Building upon this fact, some American sharpers have recently deluged the German money market with the stock of American railway schemes, which were sanctioned by the Government. Gigantic interest was promised upon them. For a time these stocks, of more or less doubtful value, were quoted upon 'change. A short time ago, however, the directors of the Berlin Bourse shut down on them, which caused much complaint. This comes, however, only from unprincipled brokers and speculators, and the Volksblatt rejoices that this has occurred, as the continuance of this swindle could only injure the credit of our Government bonds.

THE Republikaner has two interesting articles, which are original or else the credits have been omitted. The first is a wail over the fact that the present Congress will remain two months longer together, in which the remark is made that the 4th of July is well chosen for its adjournment, as once upon that day the American nation was greatly blessed by the declaration of independence, and it would be well to be a second time blessed in the decease of a corrupt Congress. The second article is upon the Military Rule in Georgia, and is in the same strain.

NEW BRIGHTON.

Pastoral Resignation.

[Correspondence to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW BRIGHTON, May 9, 1870.

The following resignation was read from the pulpit last Sabbath:

To the members of the First Methodist Church, New Brighton, Pa.

Dear Brethren and Sisters: We are now within less than four months of the close of the present conference year, at which time (Sept. 7.) I shall cheerfully resign the pastoral office of this church to whomsoever you may secure as my successor.

In the meantime I will change pulpits with such of my brethren as are suitably situated, and will cheerfully yield the pulpit to any minister you may wish to hear with a view to securing his services.

During the remainder of my pastoral term I will still endeavor, by the help of God, to be faithful to my vows to God, and my contract with you, so that, as now, I may always feel that "I have not shunned to declare unto you the whole counsel of God,—preaching Christ, warning every one, and teaching one in all wisdom, aiming to present all perfect in Christ."

I hope, and pray, that you too, will "come up to the help of the Lord," and manifest a proper zeal in His cause, and for His glory, perform your vows, and fulfil your part of the contract, that God may bless us with peace and prosperity in Christ.

While I rejoice that my "labors have not been in vain in the Lord," yet I feel increasingly sad as I approach the close of my labors among you, and see that some of you still "receive the grace of God in vain;" that there is no evidence that you are being "sanctified through the truth," growing up into Christ in all things, enjoying the life hid with Christ in God, going forward as earnest workers, and faithful soldiers for Jesus, and having good hope of eternal life.

As the salvation of an individual depends upon his union with Christ, so the success of the church depends upon the mutual co-operation of pastor and people in Christ. There is no other way.

Brethren, my heart's desire and daily prayer to God for you all, is, that you may be saved, and that as a church you may honor Christ and win souls.

May the great "Shepherd and Bishop of souls," ever preside over us all, and in His own good way and time bring us into the "eternal inheritancee" reserved for His faithful ones in Heaven. In Christ, your Pastor,

S. F. CROWTHER.

Memorial Day.

The following order has been issued from the Headquarters Grand Army of the Republic:

I. The annual ceremonies of "Memorial Day," which has been firmly established by national choice and consent, will take place on Monday, the 30th day of May.

II. All departments, districts, posts, and comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic, wherever dispersed throughout the land, will unite in such manner, and with such ceremonies, for the proper observance of the day as may be best suited to each respective locality, and all organizations, and communities, and persons whose grateful aid, sympathy and prayers sustained us throuhgout the dark days of the nation's peril, and those whose loyal, patriotic hearts beat in unison with our own, and who have heretofore, or may hereafter, join us in the observance of this memorial day, are hereby cordially invited to unite, and are earnestly requested to lend their aid and assistance in strewing the pure garlands of spring that come with votive memories of love and prayer, o'er the mounds that mark the country's altar and fold in rest eternal our martyred dead.

This is the third public observance of a day which has become marked and national for this sacred occasion. Many are now missing from our ranks who were with us before. Time, with busy fingers counts the hours for all. "In the midst of life we are in death," and one by one our veterans are "mustered out" to join the grand army on high. Let this teach us that we should so live that when we are gone it can be said: "He was a citizen, a soldier, and comrade, 'without fear and without reproach.'"

III. It is desirable that the memorial services may be preserved, and department and post commanders will forward direct to the adjutant general at national headquarters a record of such proceedings as may occur in each locality. Should the same appear in the press, or by pamphlet, a duplicate corrected copy is requested. By order: JOHN A. LOGAN,
Commander-in-Chief.

WILLIAM T. COLLINS, Adjutant General.

EDITORS GAZETTE: I wish to correct an error that occurred in the published lecture delivered by the Rev. Father Hickey, on Friday night last, on the subject of the "Common Schools."

The Rev. Gentleman says that the Central Board of Education refused to dismiss the schools on Good Friday, but on the other hand ordered a holiday to be granted to the shcolars, and the schools all closed on the 26th day of April, the day of the celebration of the Fifteenth amendment.

No, no such resolution was passed in the Board or even offered. The schools were in session that day as usual with perhaps the exception of the colored schools.

If the other facts of the reverend gentleman are as wide of the mark, as the above, the lecture will not have the weight and influence that is hoped for it.

THE Senate laid aside the bill abolishing the franking privilege. It is now uncertain when the bill will come up again for action. Many well informed Senators believe that is not the intention of the majority of the Senate to allow any action on the bill during the present session. Senator Howe says the bill will not be passed, there being a secret determination on the part of many of the Republican Senators not to vote away this privilege. They hope to prevent any direct vote being reached, that thus they may escape from placing their votes on record, for or against the passage of the bill.

FIRST EDITION.

MIDNIGHT.

NEW YORK CITY.

The McFarland Trial—Woman Suffrage Meeting—Fenian Activity—Indian Peace Policy—Inharmonious Democracy, &c., &c.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, May 9, 1870.

M'FARLAND TRIAL—TWENTY-FOURTH DAY.

The great trial was to-day resumed in the Court of General Sessions. An immense crowd, among whom the ladies largely predominated, filled every available inch of room and listened with the most wrapt attention to the eloquent speech of Mr. Graham.

Counsel for defense rose to continue his speech. He reminded the jury that McFarland's threats, or previous attempts to shoot Richardson, should have no weight with them, unless he were proved to be sane at the time. These threats can be appealed to in order to prove that McFarland was sane on the 25th of November, but His Honor would charge them that a previous sane act could not influence an insane act. Mr. Graham reminded the jury of the casual manner in which McFarland met Richardson in the Tribune office, and alluded to the special Providence which seemed to direct the bullet of an injured husband, a fact which showed the moral justice of the act. Moreover McFarland's words at the time should not be considered, because they were clearly the offspring of a frenzied mind. The counsel then reviewed the evidence to show the deranged state of the prisoner's mind during the three days preceding the 25th of November. Another point to be borne in mind was the fact that the prosecution had dubbed Mrs. McFarland with the name of her paramour, without establishing any legal right to that claim. Again, the prosecution failed to show that Mrs. McFarland had earned any more after separation from her husband, and the presumption was that she was supported all this time by Richardson. Counsel then condemned the attempt to impeach the testimony of Mrs. Callegan, as to the presence of Mrs. McFarland in Jersey City, and maintained that this attempt had utterly failed. In truth Mrs. McFarland was then ensconced in Mrs. Gilbert's house with her paramour, and her friends tried to keep her presence secret. Coming to the event itself, it would be seen that the evidence of the prosecution left the matter in a very doubtful and confused state. All the witnesses were from the Tribune office, and it was notorious that attaches of that concern were implicated in this "free love" transaction. In fact the Tribune was arraigned in the Court and all the employes in the office were witnesses in clearing that paper from the charges made against it. The counsel then alluded to the vagueness of the evidence of shooting and the failure of the prosecution to show the state of McFarland's mind on the night of the shooting. He read the evidence of King, and argued that McFarland met Richardson immediately after he entered the office. He mentioned several occasions in which McFarland could have shot Richardson, if he had any such intention, but the fact was he had no such intention while he had any control over his mind, and it was only when the balance of his mind was overthrown that Richardson fell by his hand.

The counsel then reviewed the life of McFarland, and said the plot to destroy this man is fiendish. In ordinary cases the eloping wife leaves her children behind. She went upon the stage merely to meet Richardson.

The counsel reviewed the circumstances under which Mrs. McFarland left her husband. She and Richardson had every opportunity for adulterous intercourse. He charged Mrs. Calhoun and Mrs. Sinclair with being instrumental in causing the separation, and claimed that the intercepted letter laid down a whole system of philosophy most pernicious and dangerous to society. He contended that the insanity of McFarland at the time of the deed was clearly proven. It was apparent to all during the trial that some person was prompting the counsel for the prosecution who was acquainted with the most minute particulars of McFarland's life. This could have been no other than Mrs. McFarland, and here is seen a horrible spectacle—a wife exerting herself to hang her husband.

The counsel then reviewed the evidence, which showed that McFarland was a sober man, and expressed his trust in the intelligence of the jury and their recollection of the case. Their position was a most important and responsible one. They should meet it as fathers and husbands. A fearful spectacle was presented to them—a home in ruins. Sorrow may come into the home circle in many ways, but all can be borne while there is love at the fireside. The jurors should bear in mind that homes are not to be desolated with impunity. Woman's purity is a tower of strength. But all are taught to pray against being led into temptation. A virtuous woman is the most glorious object in creation, as described in the sublime words of holy writ. Let those who attempt to destroy this beautiful work of God learn that their action cannot go unpunished and that jealousy is the rage of a man which will sweep before it the man who attempts to invade the sanctuary of home and rob men of their wives.

The Court adjourned at the conclusion of Mr. Graham's remarks and to-morrow the District Attorney will sum up for the prosecution.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

A meeting of the National Woman's Suffrage Association, preliminary to the anniversary to-morrow, was held this evening at the parlors of the Women's Bureau, Twenty-third street. Theo. Tilton's proposition for the union of the American and National Woman's Suffrage Associations was the principal topic of discussion, in which Mrs. Stanton, Miss Anthony, Mrs. Francis Miner, President of the Missouri Woman's Suffrage Association, Miss Phoebe Cozzens, and others joined. Mrs. Stanton spoke favorably of Mr. Tilton's plan. She insisted, however, that the Presidency of the united association should be held by women, for which position she earnestly sustained Miss Anthony. Other speakers were generally opposed to the consolidation, some, however, advocating union and a double-headed Presidency, one from each sex. Miss Anthony and Mrs. Robert Dale Owen were particularly severe on the Boston organization and its leaders, characterizing the Massachusetts movement as narrow in its ideas, feeble in its efforts and puritanical in its principles. Mrs. Stanton peremptorily declined to serve longer as President of the National Association.

FENIAN CONVENTION.

A convention of all the Centres of Circles of the Fenian Brotherhood in Manhattan District was held yesterday afternoon at the headquarters. Matters of the gravest interest to the organization were discussed, but most of their proceedings were secret. It was made known, however, that the late difficulties between General O'Neil and the Senate constituted the chief subject of discussion, and the action of the Senate was bitterly condemned. The Centres report that an enthusiastic feeling in favor of an onward movement is existing among their Circles, and pledge themselves that in the event of General O'Neil commencing a war policy, he may rely upon effective support.

THE INHARMONIOUS DEMOCRACY.

The anti-Tammany convention to-day agreed to unite against Tammany, and to combine among themselves on a general ticket. A composite ticket was made out, the following being agreed upon as the probable nominations: For Judges of Court of Common Pleas, Jos. W. Grand, Max Goepp, J. R. Doolittle, George L. Curtiss, W. H. Peckham, and Roswell U. Hatch; for Marine Court Judges, John A. Stemler, William H. Boyd and James D. Reimant. Candidates for Aldermen were also agreed upon, and the entire ticket will be regularly nominated to-morrow night.

INDIAN PEACE POLICY.

The United States Indian Commission have issued an address to the American people, calling for the organization of auxiliary associations by all who sustain President Grant's well known peace policy towards the Indians. A consultation will be held here on the 18th inst., to discuss the Indian question and devise means for its settlement, and to avert a war of colossal magnitude.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The steamer Pennsylvania, from Liverpool, has arrived.

The Tammany caucus nominees for Judicial offices were confirmed by the Convention to-day.

Henry Ward Beecher is to have an assistant in Rev. S. B. Holliday.

The medal of the French Geographical Society to DuChaillu will be presented to him to-morrow night, with appropriate ceremonies.

A colossal bronze statue of Franklin is to be erected by Capt. Degroot in Printing House Square, at an expense of from $25,000 to $30,000.

The emigration fever is increasing and departures for Colorado are very numerous.

Frank Jones, who attempted to dispose of forged bonds of the Atlantic and Great Western Road, has been admitted bail.

It is rumored an investigation is ordered from Washington into the office of Michael Scanlon, Assessor, as to the management of the third Internal Revenue District, which is said to be conducted in violation of orders.

A Brooklyn school boy, Herman Clark, has been arrested for an alleged intent to shoot a female teacher. A revolver was found on him.

Rev. Chas. B. Smythe's church to-night voted 40 to 23 against his longer continuing their pastor.

Chas. W. Brooks, Chinese Consul at San Francisco, is here to-day, on his way to Washington to invite the President, Cabinet and Congressmen to join the excursion party to San Francisco, leaving Boston May 23d.

FAYETTE COUNTY.

Republican Convention—G. W. K. Miner Nominated for Congress—Also a Full County Ticket.

[Special Dispatch to the Gazette.]

UNIONTOWN, May 9.—The Republican County Convention assembled to-day. G. W. K. Miner, Esq., was nominated for Congress by acclamation amid great applause. A full county ticket was also nominated. The Convention was full, and harmonious throughout. Old Fayette is wide awake.

—Advices from Red River to April 16th state the Indian excitement had subsided, the Sioux and Chippewas having promised to remain quiet. Riell had issued another proclamation declaring that peace was an established fact, that business was reviving and inviting all the inhabitants to uphold his government.

The Crisis in France—Napoleon's Policy Overwhelmingly Sustained—Order Preserved in Paris—Activity in the Iron Trade in Wales—Usually Contradictory Advices from Cuba.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

FRANCE.

PARIS, May 9.—The City of Paris gives a majority of thirty thousand votes against the Emperor. The cities of Lyons, Marseilles, Toulouse and Bordeaux also gave a majority of nays. The general result is estimated as follows: Yeas 6,500,000, nays 1,500,000.

The vote cast by the navy is all in except that of two ports. The result shows, yeas 15,457, and nays 2,970. The vote of the Seventh battalion of Chasseurs is about equally divided. At the barracks Eugene the result showed 1,652 yes, and 1,121 no. The Twenty Cent Gardes voted no. Only fifteen Garde du Paris voted no. It is reported that two regiments at Vincennes refused to vote. The soldiers in Paris voted about 38,000 yes, and 5,000 no.

NOON.—Full returns are not received, but enough is known to make it certain that the Government has been sustained by an immense majority. To this hour the figures stand as follows: Yes about 6,400,000, no about 1,340,000.

The city is tranquil. The morning journals have editorial articles on the result of the voting yesterday and comment particularly on the vote of the army.

3 P. M.—The newspapers to-day announce the marriage of Gustave Lafitte to Kate Vanderbilt Barker, grand-daughter of Commodore Vanderbilt.

The "Opinione Nationale" notes the extreme quiet, even solemnity of the voting yesterday throughout the Empire.

Evening.—The returns received foot up: Yes, 7,126,238; no, 1,485,844. The vote of the army, as far as is known, is yes 219,290; no, 31,698. It is estimated that without counting the votes of the arrondissments, the army, navy and Algeria, the Government will have a majority of over 5,000,000.

The excitement has been intense all day, but no disturbance whatever. Military precautions are continued. A council of Ministers was held to-day. The Emperor presided. It is reported as the result of the council's deliberations that the Ministers will tender their resignations to-morrow, and M. Ollivier be charged by the Emperor with the formation of a new cabinet.

The Emperor has complimented the Prefet of Police for his success in maintaining public order.

Victor Hugo has been cited to appear before the tribunal for an article in the "Rappel" exciting hatred and contempt for the government.

MIDNIGHT—This evening barricades were thrown up in Fauborg Du Temple. They were quickly carried by the troops, who it is reported fired on the defenders. Other parts of Paris were tranquil.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, May 9.—The Times announces the marriage of Lord Derby with the Dowager Marchioness of Salisbury.

The London Times understands the warning to German capitalists against American bonds to have come from the North German Consul at New York. The North Pacific Railway and Honduras bonds, the Times says, were especially tabooed.

The "News" authoritatively contradicts the rumor of John Bright's contemplated resignation from the Cabinet.

DUBLIN, May 9.—The National Press denounces Bishop Cullen's pastoral letter, and declares his denunciation of Fenianism as aid for the British coercion policy.

The anticipated reduction of duties on iron by the United States causes great activity in the iron regions of Wales.

The result of the plebiscitum is accepted by the press here as a foregone conclusion, from Imperial arrangements previously made.

In the House of Commons, Mr. Otway, under Foreign Secretary, in reply to a question of Mr. Gilpin, said the Spanish Government was fully able to subdue the insurrection in Cuba. The insurgents held no important place. The interference of Her Majesty's Government, which had been suggested, would be inopportune. He promised that the Government would not fail to seize any occasion to mitigate the horrors of civil war in that island, and it would be highly desirable to have the co-operation of the Government of the United States. The House, in committee, resumed the consideration of the Irish land bill. The discussion had to do mainly with technical and legal points, and was of little interest. The Marquis of Hartington moved for leave to introduce a bill amending the laws relative to Parliamentary elections.

Sir Wm. Malmsford has been appointed to the command of the forces in Ireland, succeeding Lord Strathnairn.

A Republican outbreak is reported at Catanzaro, Naples. The insurrection is said to be serious, and the troops have been reinforced by several regiments.

In the House of Lords to-night, Earl Granville said no further news had been received from Canada concerning Red River affairs. The Naturalization bill was taken up. The amendment of the Commons was concurred in and the bill passed.

CUBA.

HAVANA, May 9.—Some of the principal ladies in Puerto Principe have signed an address, calling on their relatives in the insurgent ranks to return and enjoy liberty under the Spanish Government.

HAVANA, via Key West, May 8.—General Goicouria was garroted to satisfy the volunteers and open the way for the return of De Rodas. The Captain General is much annoyed at his failure to extinguish the insurrection in the Camagaui District. The Spaniards have butchered numbers of families at Puerto Principe in revenge for the escape of their Cuban relatives to rejoin the patriots in the field. The patriot forces command the entire Cinco Villas district and occupy the eastern portion of Santo Epiritu jurisdiction. The Spaniards have been routed in every direction and are now closed in at Manzanilla, Trinidad, Cienfuegos, Morem and Santiago de Cuba. The work of devastation has been fairly inaugurated in the districts of Colan and Sagua. The Spanish authorities are unable to prevent the disorganization of their adherents, though they are making every effort to rally their forces and give the appearance of harmony to the situation. With the financial employes the cry of sauve qui peut is general and they seize everything within their reach. Havana is tranquil.

HAVANA, May 9.—Official dispatches from Puerto Principe represent the insurgent army has disappeared from the Camagquay district. Gonzala Varona, Chief of Staff of the rebel General Agramonte, and Paymaster Morales were captured and executed. A party of sixteen armed insurgents came to Puerto Principe and surrendered. The gunboats at Guajaba Key discovered and destroyed another rebel craft.

MARINE NEWS.

QUEENSTOWN, May 9.—The steamship Palmyra, from New York, arrived yesterday.

COWES, May 9.—The yachts Sappho and Dauntless are off the shore here, and the Cambria left her dock at 5:30 P. M. Mr. Maret has been selected as umpire for the Cambria, and Mr. Henry Bridson for the Sappho. Mr. J. D. Lee is appointed referee. The weather is fine to-night, with a promise of plenty of wind to-morrow. There is every prospect of a fair start at seven in the morning. The points of departure are yet undecided.

RUSSIA.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 9.—One Chisckow, a laborer, has been arrested, charged with the murder of Prince D'Arenburg. He was once employed by the prince, and it is said the proofs against him are conclusive.

SPAIN.

MADRID, May 9.—The government has withdrawn the salaries of the Bishops who refused to take the oath to the new Constitution.

State Aid to the Boston, Hartford and Erie Railroad—Report of the Legislative Committee.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BOSTON, May 9.—The majority of the Committee on the subject of State aid to the Boston, Hartford and Erie railroad reported to the Legislature to-day. Their report provides that scrip be issued by the Treasurer of the Commonwealth to the amount of $3,500,000, to provide for which the corporation is authorized to issue second mortgage bonds to the amount of $15,000,000, a majority to be deposited in the State Treasury before the first of January next, for which certificates will be issued by the Treasurer which shall have the same value as the stock, and the Treasurer is to hold the stock until the State is relieved of the liability on account of its loan. Before the corporation can receive any of the scrip from the Treasurer there shall be a new election of officers of the company, and the State shall have the right to vote for eight of the thirteen directors, through the Governor and Council. The report further provides that all property of the Boston, Hartford and Frie Ferry Extension Company shall be placed under the absolute control of the Boston, Hartford and Erie Railroad Company, in such manner as shall be satisfactory to the Governor and Council. The report is signed by eight members of the Committee. A minority report signed by two members, differing with the majority, was also presented.

The Cuban Question—Case of Georgia—Panic in a Colored Church—Agricultural Report—Northern Pacific Railroad—San Domingo Treaty, &c.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 9, 1870.

THE CUBAN QUESTION.

The expected action of Congress on the question of Cuban belligerency has been delayed in a manner which seemed, for a long time, unaccountable, but which recent developments fully explain. The House has been waiting for a report of the Committee on Foreign Affairs favorable to the resolutions which were referred to that Committee. The Committee offered several weeks ago to report the resolutions, together with the report then prepared, but they have been held back partly under influences which have been actively operating in other directions, but toward the same end. The two wings, organized here for different objects, have been industriously and successfully at work to stave off any action by Congress. The first consists of the pretended friends of Cuba, whose efforts have been directed towards preventing the granting of belligerent rights till the Cuban agents would consent to their terms. The other ring includes several influential persons in Spain and this country, among whom are prominently General Prim and Spanish Minister Roberts, with the full aid, sympathy and concurrence of Secretary Fish. The scheme on foot and now matured for practical execution is that Spain shall sell the island to the Spanish volunteers for ten hundred millions of dollars, of which ten millions are to be paid down, and bonds given for the balance, secured on the island and guaranteed, if feasible, by the United States. If this cannot be obtained, arrangements are to be made by it as mediator or with their moral aid. Mr. Fish and friends do not hesitate to express the conviction that the cession of Cuba to the Spanish volunteers would be a most desirable solution of the question. It is confidently intimated that Spain will sell the island to the Spanish volunteers, and that the Spanish volunteers will sell it to the United States. This scheme has not become sufficiently developed so far as the principal features are known, but it has been broken, and the whole affair will soon be revealed.

THE CASE OF GEORGIA.

The Reconstruction Committee will take up the Georgia case on Tuesday, if Gen. Butler shall have returned, as expected. A leading member of the Committee says that the bill the Committee will report will be the same as the Virginia and Mississippi bills, with a clause declaring the term of the present State officers not to be considered to have begun until the State is declared restored. This would have the effect of continuing the Legislature, which is one of the objectionable features of the former measure.

PANIC IN A CHURCH.

Last night a column supporting the gallery of the Colored Baptist Church on Third street gave way, causing the gallery to settle about a foot. The congregation made a rush to escape, some jumping from the first and second story windows. One was taken home insensible, another had his left side severely bruised, a third a foot injured and several others received cuts and bruises.

NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.

A caucus of about twenty Republican Representatives resolved to continue opposition to the Northern Pacific Railroad bill until its friends allow time for discussion and amendment.

AGRICULTURAL REPORT.

The April report of the Department of Agriculture says winter grains everywhere show small and poor growth, but generally of good color and ready to start under the influence of genial spring.

APPROVED.

The President has approved the bill allowing persons elected to office in Texas thirty days from April 30th to take the oath prescribed by the act admitting the State to representation in Congress.

INCREASE OF IMPORTS.

The increase of imports, excluding free goods, during the first eight months of the fiscal year amounts to $27,271,250.

AFFAIRS IN CUBA.

The Government has not recently received any official information concerning the events in Cuba, nor is there anything to induce the belief of any change in the Spanish policy.

SAN DOMINGO TREATY.

The friends of the Dominican treaty say a two-thirds vote can now be obtained in the Senate for the ratification.

RETURNED.

Gen. Butler having returned, the Reconstruction Committee will to-morrow consider the Georgia bill as returned from the Senate.

Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MEMPHIS, May 9.—In the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, the Conference was called to order by Bishop Payne. After the usual religious exercises Bishop Andrews delivered a short address, advising conservatism in all actions, to make as few changes as possible for the next four years, and then referred to the North Methodist journals in their abuse of him. He did not like the manner in which our editors are glorifying one another, and thought that their energies should be devoted in glorifying God, not themselves. Various memorials and petitions were appropriately referred, including one from Richmond in regard to abolishing the office of Presiding Elder and the admission of laity to the Council of Bishops; for the Committee on Revision to inquire into the expediency of restricting the veto power of the Bishops. A resolution was adopted that after the 14th inst., no resolutions or memorials shall be referred, also one to adjourn sine die on the 23d.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

—Gen. Sheridan was at Salt Lake yesterday, en route to Montana.

—The steamer Tarifa, from Europe, arrived at Boston yesterday.

—Hon. Jas. T. Austin died at Boston yesterday, aged eighty-six.

—The damage done to the Wisconsin State Prison by the recent fire was but $75,000.

—The Tennessee Legislature convened yesterday, but neither House had a quorum.

—Conner & Bros. extensive knife factory at Richmond, Ind., was destroyed by fire Sunday night. Loss $12,000.

—The Odd Fellows of Columbus, Ohio, have made great preparations for the dedication of their new hall to-day.

—At Columbia, Pa., on Sunday, a woman named Cramer committed suicide by cutting her throat with a razor.

—The annual grand encampment of Odd Fellows met at San Francisco yesterday. The grand lodge meets there to-day.

—Hon. Lawrence Brainard, formerly United States Senator, died at St. Albans, Vt., on Monday night, aged eighty-six years.

—Nearly half the town of Fincastle, Botetourt county, Va., was burned on Friday night last. The court-house was saved.

—The flouring mill of J. B. Shough, and the Illinois Central Railroad freight house, at Normal, Ill., were burned on Monday. Loss $25,000.

—Dr. Ebenezer Rodgers, a well-known physician of Upper Alton, Ill., committed suicide on Sunday by drowning while delirious from illness.

—The residence of N. O. Sykes, Tippah county, Mississippi, was burned Saturday night last. Two daughters aged eight and thirteen perished in the flames.

—The will of the late Bishop Kingsley was admitted to probate at Cincinnati yesterday. He left $15,000 in real estate and $600 in personal property, all to his wife.

—At Lacrosse, Wis., on Sunday, the wife of Frank McGovern was found dead, having been horribly beaten and mangled. Her husband has been arrested on suspicion.

—Domestic trouble caused Katherine Dad, a young married woman residing in Jersey City, to commit suicide on Saturday night, by cutting her throat and wrists. She bled to death in a few minutes.

—John G. Whittier, the poet, attended Henry Ward Beecher's Church, in Brooklyn, Sunday. After the sermon Mr. Beecher shook hands warmly with Whittier, and handed him a boquet. The poet seemed much affected at the greeting.

—There was an immense Fenian demonstration at San Francisco on Sunday. Resolutions were adopted condemning the cruelties practised upon political prisoners by the British Government, and also the recent enactment by Parliament for the government of Ireland.

—At Chicago last evening Patrick J. Doyle, keeper of a pawn shop on Wells street, shot John Schneider, an employe in his establishment, twice in the throat, inflicting fatal wounds. There was no provocation for the act, but Doyle was crazy from drink. He was arrested.

—The State of Maryland has commenced suit against the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad to recover the value of gold over currency in which the State has been paid its six per cent. dividends on preferred stock, which now amounts to nearly two millions. The claim is based on the recent decision of the Supreme Court.

—Rev. Father Preston, at New York, on Sunday, lectured on the infallibility of the Pope. The lecturer remarked that a popular error existed as to the character of the dogma. He explained that the question of infallibility means that the Pope cannot err in matters of faith. He may sin and err in other things, but in matters of faith he is infallible.

—Dr. Daniel Tilden, one of the most distinguished physicians in Northern Ohio, died at his residence in Sandusky Sunday morning, in his eighty-second year. He was in active practice fifty-seven years, and was regarded as one of the most learned and skilful of his profession, and for his many charities and social virtues was beloved by all who knew him.

—Col. Hough publishes a card, at San Francisco, refuting the charge of Fitz Hugh Lee that Gen. Thomas offered his services in writing to the Governor of Virginia at the beginning of the war and was strongly southern in his feelings. Col. H. uses the General's own words in regard to the slander, emphatically denying that any letter ever passed between him and the rebel authorities.

XLIST CONGRESS,

(SECOND SESSION.)

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 9, 1870.

SENATE.

Mr. WILSON reported an amendment to the bill furnishing artificial limbs for disabled soldiers.

Mr. FENTON introduced a bill requiring the Secretary of the Treasury, National banks and other corporations and associations to have published annually a statement of the amount of interest due upon the certificates and stock issued by the United States; also dividends, deposits and interest accruing from other sources, which have been unclaimed for two years. Referred to the Committee on Finance.

The bill reducing taxation was taken up and Mr. MORRILL, of Vermont, delivered a long speech, favoring such a tariff for protection as would induce healthy competition in our manufactures without grinding down other interests, and at the same time raising a proper amount of revenue.

Mr. WILSON, from Military Committee, reported, with amendment, the bill to extend the time for the presentation of claims for additional bounty under the act of July 20, 1866.

Mr. WILLIAMS reported, with amendments, the bill to incorporate the Kansas, Indian Territory and Gulf Railroad Company, and to enable the Missouri River, Fort Scott and Gulf and the Leavenworth, Lawrence and Galveston Railroad Companies to construct a single track through Indian Territory to the Gulf.

Mr. WARNER reported the bill extending the time for the reversion to the United States of lands granted Michigan to aid the construction of the Marquette and Flint Railroad.

Mr. WILSON reported without amendment the bill to reimburse Kansas [illegible] moneys expended in raising and equipping militia for the suppression of the rebellion.

The Senate, in Committee of the Whole, resumed the consideration of the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation bill. Sundry amendments reported by the Committee on Appropriations were agreed to.

The amendment to reduce the appropriation for the Bureau of Education from [illegible] to $5,400, cutting off provision for any other officers than Commissioner and two clerks, was debated by Messrs. Morrill, Me., Patterson, Howard, Howell, Ferry, Yates, Tipton, Drake and Sumner until recess.

Evening Session.—A resolution was offered by Mr. SPRAGUE, and adopted, calling upon the Secretary of the Treasury for a copy of the report made to the Department by Anthony Pollock, in 1867 or 1864, relative to the operations of banks in England and France.

House bill for the construction of a bridge across the Niagara river at Buffalo was objected to on the ground that the width of the draw was not determined, but left solely to the determination of the Secretary of War. Laid over.

The appropriation bill was resumed.

The section relative to the Bureau of Education was passed over till to-morrow, owing to the limited attendance.

Numerous amendments involving an increase in items of appropriation were agreed to.

During the discussion upon one for the increase of the salary of the Chief Clerk of the Navy Department, Mr. SHERMAN remarked it had been proposed by the high officers of the Government to combine the War and Navy Departments, and expressed the opinion that the office of Secretary of the Navy could be dispensed with.

Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

After the reading of the journal the House adjourned, there not being a quorum present for the transaction of business.

The Methodist Protestant Conference.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BALTIMORE, May 9.—In the general Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church the proposition to abolish a probationary state in the Church was referred, as also was the propositions for various changes in the constitution of the church. A resolution that the bounds of the West Virginia Conference be extended to embrace the original Muskingum District in Ohio was referred. A committee was ordered to consider the memorial from the Virginia Conference relative to a union between the Methodist Protestant Church and Methodist Episcopal Church South.

Southern Baptist Convention.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LOUISVILLE, KY., May 9.—In the Southern Baptist Convention reports on foreign and domestic missions were read and referred to Committees. The report extending the operations of the foreign missions board was unanimously adopted. St. Louis was fixed as the next place of meeting.

Mormon Semi-Annual Conference.

REAL ESTATE INDICATIONS.—An important peremptory sale of real estate took place in Allegheny yesterday morning, which is a very good test of how the wind blows in regard to real estate. The property referred to is situate on the corner of Stockton and Sherman avenues, and is fifty four by one hundred and forty feet. It was offered two months ago in the lump for $18,000, and withdrawn on a bid of $14,000. It was offered yesterday in divisions and sold for the gross sum of twenty thousand, three hundred and fifty dollars. Mr. Alex. Leggate officiated as auctioneer.

THE DAILY GAZETTE.

OFFICIAL PAPER
Of Pittsburgh, Allegheny City and Allegheny County.

GAZETTE BUILDING:
Corner of Sixth Avenue and Smithfield Street.

TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 10, 1870.

BONDS in Frankfort, 95¼.

PETROLEUM in Antwerp, 53½.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 114¼.

ONE week from to-day, May 17th, New York will hold her judicial election—for a fourteen years' term of a Chief Justice and assistants, in the highest Court of the State.

THE vault acount, of which so much was said, was partially composed of $112,000 passed over from William H. Kemble as a portion of the account. This is the amount that Mr. Kemble owed the treasury when he left, and which was never paid during General Irwin's former term. Mr. Kemble, in other words, when Gen. Irwin assumed the Treasurership, was short exactly $112,000.

—We find this remarkable statement in a Harrisburg paper which has volunteered to defend Mr. Irwin. He had better hire some other attorney. This man drives nails in his coffin with a vengeance.

It seems that the "vault account" of $211,000, of May, '69, was made up of $112,000 short from Kemble, and $99,000, for which Mr. Irwin was personally chargeable, according to the statement of his friend in the Harrisburg paper. Arithmetical problem for the little boys of Beaver county: If Irwin's cash was short $99,000 the first year, how much will it be the second? Another question for debating societies in Butler: Which is Irwin's best "holt"—as a grammarian or as a financier? We recommend Senator Kerr as an umpire for the disputants.

WE printed an interesting "tale of an envelope" the other day. The narrator exhibited talents for description of a high order. His attention is invited to another scene in the same Legislative experience—the negotiations which resulted in breaking down a Republican nomination, and in electing a State Treasurer who writes railroad with two big Rs and the name of the Supreme with a small g. The people would be pleased to read a graphic sketch of those transactions from the same pen. We understand that the public wish will be gratified. Indeed, the history of that "honesty and reform" crowd, from the beginning in November to its final rout on the Omnibus bill, is fruitful enough of startling incidents to support a weekly series of dime novels a la Beadle. The historian has all the needed facilities, with access to many of the original documents. He will give fac similes of the Anderson checks to most of the bolting Senators and Representatives. When a Senator's wife received the envelop covering the purchase money for his vote, the fact will be recorded with equal delicacy and precision. On the whole, we are promised some "mighty interesting" reading.

SENATOR James Kerr, of the Butler, Lawrence and Armstrong district, cannot plead ignorance of the course of public opinion among his constituency. He knows what they think of him, and that they know that he knows more than he dare tell. How long will he defy the censure which must overwhelm any man who stands dumb before his accusers? Can he be insensible to the finger of scorn with which his honest constituents are pointing to that record? Will he try to brave it out, or will he yield to the pressure of the popular judgment, and resign a seat which he does not honor? Let him remember that, if he ever returns to Harrisburg, it will be as a marked man. He will not find Lowry there, to screen him behind a wall of triple brass. He will have the congenial companionship of no Craigs, Leslies, McCrackens and Wheelers, to take refuge in. The Democracy don't want him. He will find himself shunned by the Senators and Representatives of the next Legislature, as if he were the embodiment of a plague. He will not even make money, for he will not be worth buying. He will be shorn of influence, of public respect, of private profit, of honorable companionship, of everything worth enjoying, while that record will stick to him like the poisoned shirt of Nessus. The electors of Butler, Lawrence and Armstrong ask of him but one more public service—and that is his voluntary and most discreet retirement from a trust which they so bitterly regret.

ATTENTION—WORKINGMEN!

A meeting will be held on Wednesday evening, as advertised in another column, which no operative in these cities and the vicinity should fail to attend. Pittsburgh is what she is, by reason of her fairly protected industry. Let the voice of that industry be heard in upholding the policy which gives all of us here our daily bread. The free-traders sneer at the apathy of the working men when the tariff is assailed. We shall look to this meeting for a suitable and effective reply. Let every citizen be on hand, who knows how to value his privileges.

WINNIPEG PACIFIED.

The official statement in Parliament, of the adjustment of the political troubles in the Red River colony, is confirmed by the late revelations on this side of the Atlantic. The terms demanded by the colonists have been substantially conceded by the government of the Dominion. The colony is to be created a province, with the name of Manitoba, with a full staff of provincial officers, and shall be allowed to send two Senators and four Representatives to the Ottawa Parliament. The colony is relieved from all taxation, the Canadian government subsidizing it at the rate of eighty cents per head, and appropriating $300,000 to organize the territory, which is not to be entered by the troops of the Dominion except to suppress Indian hostilities. These terms, however acceptable to the people of Winnipeg, are severely criticised in the Dominion press, which contrasts the liberal allowances of parliamentary influence with the comparatively meagre privileges of a city like Montreal. Nevertheless, there can be little doubt as to the statesmanlike wisdom which has foreborne, at almost any cost, to press the pending issues to a critical trial by force. Let the pear ripen on its stem. When mature, it will fall—and political gravitation can have but one course on the border of this Republic. Mr Gladstone recognizes the tendencies of the situation, and shares in the predominant disposition, of all intelligent Englishmen, to acquiesce in the logic of events.

THE FRENCH ELECTION.

The Imperial policy has the support of the French people, by a vote of nearly four to one, the negative voice being scarcely worth counting out of Paris, where it was in the majority. The result affords a remarkable proof of the success of the Emperor's designs, in another respect. It accomplishes the political decentralization of France. The great metropolis is no longer itself the nation. Paris has ruled French politics for eighty years, and with a despotism as absolute as it has too often been atrocious. In 1790, the mob of the city overturned the throne of Louis XV, and seized upon an effective control of the government, which has never been completely relaxed until the present hour. Under the Directory, the Consulate, the first empire, the dynasties of Bourbon and Orleans, the coup d' etat of 51, the Presidency and the second Empire, Paris has continued to shape and govern the domestic and the foreign policy of the entire nation. The first Napoleon reorganized and guided the power of this centralized influence, having first proved himself to be its master. Even the present Emperor gained his throne by a triumph over the populace who themselves ruled France from the Rhine to the Garoune. The conqueror of Paris has never yet needed another title. The provinces and departments accepted always the metropolitan result.

To relieve the French nation from the dangerous influence of this centralization of political power has been the fixed policy of the Emperor. The end has crowned his work. For the first time in eighty years, Paris is effectually overwhelmed by the crushing preponderance of the provincial ideas, its king-making populace are themselves uncrowned and disarmed, the France of the future belongs to all its people from the English Channel to the Pyrenees, and the Napoleonic dynasty is securely established upon the hearty support of the millions of rustics who perceive, and will not surrender, their power which is manifest in this result. Paris will still be a potent element in the politics of the nation, for good or for evil, but she is no longer omnipotent. Louis Napoleon has forever chained the tiger. The personal government of centuries has been obliterated, and replaced by the responsible ministry and popular representation which are hereafter to prove their efficacy, as a barrier to stand between a constitutional monarchy and the wild frenzies of a metropolitan mob. The France of the coming years is to be of the whole French people, and not of Paris, constitutional and national, not revolutionary at the pleasure of the faubourgs and the demagogues.

THE MASK OFF.

The Free Trader, a monthly publication at New York, is the organ of its school of political economists. The May number is really refreshing reading. It advertises Commissioner WELLS as "a sound free trader." It is happy to hear that "an association of liberal-minded Englishmen has just been formed for the purpose of publishing an "International Free Trade Review," to present to "advanced students of economic science, a faithful record of the prospects and progress of free trade principles in all quarters of the globe." Very thoughtful this kind purpose of our English brethren! A Pennsylvania member of Congress, "whose name we are not permitted to mention," writes about "the robbery perpetrated upon the people under the name of 'protection to home industry,'" which his for-the-present anonymous prudence intends to expose by-and-by to the people of his district. We think the first letter of this discreet gentleman's name must be HALDEMAN, especially as he gets in a modest allusion to the lampreys of Lucullus and the purse of Crassus. That sort of talk finds gaping mouths and capacious throats in the York district, which has mineral wealth enough, if developed by a truly American policy, to pay the national debt, but elects a Congressman to vote always for keeping it locked up in the earth.

The Free Trader devotes its double-leaded editorial to the Washington meeting "of free traders and revenue reformers." The names of the editors of the Chicago Tribune, St. Louis Democrat, New York Post, the Nation, the Cincinnati Commercial and the North American Review are conspicuously paraded in its report of the proceedings. Says the Free Trader:

> The tariff question, in its bearings upon politics, was exhaustively discussed, and it was agreed by the Republicans present that they would endeavor to bring that party to repentance for the past, and in the present to "works meet for repentance." Failing this, it was determined that action outside of the Republican party would become necessary, and should be taken. Republican aspirants for Congress, who are Protectionists, will, therefore, in the next Congressional elections, be opposed by the most influential newspapers in the country, and by this League and its now numerous branches and coadjutors. Both newspapers and leagues will unhesitatingly and gladly support an upright Free Trade Democrat against all kinds of Protectionists, whether "incidentalists" or followers of the Chinese School.

—Since the journals here named have thus counted themselves squarely out of the Republican party, except upon their own free-trade terms, we submit to the opposition press that it would be a glaring injustice to quote them hereafter as "Radical authority." Since they have discovered that our party has no sympathy with the free-trade swindle, or with its defenders, we and they have alike cause for mutual congratulations in the declared separation. Already at Chicago, the situation is accepted and sharply defined by our Republican friends, who will hereafter reckon one false ally the less to be dangerous, and one more avowed opponent to crush. Mr. Judd will have the first opportunity to realize the natural fruits of this change of front.

DEAF MUTE INSTRUCTION.

Until late in the last century, this afflicted class of our fellow beings, to whom the sense of hearing had been denied, were wholly excluded from the field of intellectual cultivation. Never, up to that date, had lived the deaf-mute who could read, write, or communicate, except by rude signs and gestures, with any other human being. For centuries, indeed, the true character of the most frequent causes for this deprivation was misunderstood. The vulgar belief that the want of hearing and of speech was, necessarily, a mark of feeble intellect, or of an abnormal deficiency of brain—in other words, that the mute was naturally short-witted, above an idiot perhaps, yet below a lunatic, and belonging to either class rather than to perfect humanity—has not only been generally accepted, through all time, but is not yet wholly unknown to the living of to-day. But science had nevertheless discovered, early in the last century, that the vocal organs of the mute were usually perfect, and that it was only the faculty of hearing which was absent. Since this was found to be due, with rare exceptions, to such an absolute lesion of the structure of the ear as to be incapable of remedy or alleviation, no thorough effort was made by science, through other instrumentalities, to supply to the mute that familiarity with the nature of sounds which a proper use of the vocal organs requires. For it was known then, as well as to-day, that the mute is usually dumb only because he is deaf,—so deaf that he cannot perceive the sound of his own voice, and is therefore unable to control its modulations in intelligible accents. Give him this faculty, and it would be possible for him at least to speak if he cannot hear, and to supply in part the proper uses of the ear through, for example, the eye alone. But, so far from devising any practicable system for imparting this instruction, science and philanthrophy waited upon each other—and did nothing, to reach intellects naturally as capable as any, but shut out, by the loss of an indispensable sense, from every avenue of mental communication with society.

It is about a century since the Abbe Sieyes, a cultivated French priest, devised the mute alphabet, and shaped the primary rudiments for the instruction of the deaf and dumb. His labors bore a speedy fruit. The cordial support of his government, under Louis XV, and Louis XVI, verified the merits of his discovery, and gave it a successful trial. The results, simple, actual and yet most gratifying, astonished society. The new system was taken to England, copied in Germany, and a few years later, transplanted by Dr. Gallaudet, to the United States, and established soon after at Hartford, in the first deaf mute asylum on this Continent. Now, the system is known and adapted among all the civilized peoples of the world. The educated pupils of these institutions are to be found everywhere, and perhaps including a larger per centage of their class than is the case with society at large.

The system relies upon the eye, to replace the ear, and communicates by signs instead of by sounds. The alphabet is thus taught, and reading, with writing, follows. Thus the educational field is opened, in its full width, to the mute; who is usually found to be gifted with both physical and mental perceptions all the more acute in other particulars for the single defect.

But here philanthropic progress had stayed. The field for progress in improvement was regarded as exhausted. The idea that the dormant faculty of speech, its organs being all perfect, could be restored to the deaf, was dismissed, if entertained at all, as illusory and indeed impracticable. That idea had been suggested, but its advocates were scoffed at as dreamers, and themselves as charlatans. It is more than thirty years since the attention of the public of that day was invited to the merits of a new method for the vocal instruction of deaf mutes. Dr. Togno, an Italian then made his appearance in Philadelphia, advertising his ability to instruct pupils of that unfortunate class in the oral communication from which nature had seemed to debar them. He obtained many patients, or pupils, but his notions were crude, his surgery incapable, his method of no real use, and he soon disappeared from the notice of the public. For twenty five years nothing more was heard of the vocal education of the class. At last the idea was revived again in better hands, and based upon a more complete understanding of the existing conditions. We hear that the improved method has achieved a wonderful success. Massachusetts has a school at Northampton, where the most gratifying results are attained. In New York is another, the pupils of which, in a recent exhibition, illustrated a wonderful educational triumph. Their enunciation, though not perfect, was quite intelligible, and surprised a cultivated audience. The eye is taught to read the movements of speaking lips, and the tongue is attuned to a certain faculty of expression. Much remains to be learned but the much which has been achieved, in this degree of progress, is as astonishing as it is gratifying. It warrants the confident hope that, before the end of another generation, we may amend the double designation of the asylums for this class, educating the deaf, and giving to the no longer dumb the inestimable boon of speech.

FARM, GARDEN AND HOUSEHOLD.

SOAKS FOR SEED CORN AFTER CULTIVATION.

Some planters are opposed to the soaking of seeds before planting, deeming it best to let nature have its own way, whilst others think it very advantageous if suitable manures are put in the hills or the drills as before advisable to plant a stimulus, and if the care had been taken to select the harvesting the earliest and best ears for seed, this would, in a great degree, supersede the necessity of soaking. We will, however, give the following composition for soaks, so that those who may wish to use them may make a selection or take which is handiest for their purposes: First: Dissolve two pounds glauber salts in ten gallons boiling water, soak a bushel of corn therein twelve to twenty-four hours, then drain off the water and add as much plaster and ashes as will coat and separate the grains when well stirred into corn. This soak, as well as the others which follow, will serve to be used several times and found effective. Second: Dissolve two pounds copperas in ten gallons water and stir in among the corn half a gallon soft soap, when the grains are covered with the soap add the plaster and ashes as in No. 1. Third: Dissolve one pound of saltpeter in four gallons boiling water, soak a bushel corn and strain as before, twelve or twenty four hours, and mix with ashes and plaster to separate the grain as already directed. Fourth: Put a pint of common tar, or glass house tar, into a barrel or tub, pour on it three gallons boiling water, or as much as is necessary to cover the corn put in, stir until the tar is dissolved and incorporated with the water, then put a bushel of corn into the soaks for twelve to twenty hours, drain off the liquid then into another vessel and add ashes and plaster, as in the other soaks, to entirely coat the grains of corn and stir until this is effected.

Where the cut-worm threatens the crop a bushel or two of salt to the acre, about the time the plants come up. We have already urged the application of manure to the hill or drill, but the cultivator should not rely on it alone for his crop. It will give the corn a good start, but the roots will soon extend beyond the deposit for the seed and will be seeking for other means of support or nutriment. Hence the necessity of broadcasting manure also to meet this emergency, as also for the general improvement of the land; otherwise the effects of the manure applied under the seed corn will have exhausted itself, and the plant, unless the land is naturally very good, will be less able to bring the ear to maturity and at the proper time. The feeders of spongioles of the plant are at the extreme points of the roots; and as soon as these roots extend beyond the reach of the manure placed in the hill, they lose all the benefits thereof, as they cannot partake any longer of its nourishment. The tap roots may receive some of the benefits by the manure being carried down by the rains, but the main part of the foot of the corn plant is supplied by the lateral roots, which stretch across the rows with their mouths open, seeking for that food which is necessary for a vigorous growth toward maturity. These lateral roots, every corn planter is aware, extend from one to three feet or more from the hills, and if the source of feeding is so far from these extremities of the roots, of course, if no other resource is at hand for subsistence, the growth of the plant is hindered.

If these lateral roots extend the distance indicated above, there is danger to the success of the crop if the plow is used among them, as it endangers the means of taking up the food of the plant by cutting off the mouths of the roots, through which its support is derived. These roots should never be lascerated, for, although they may by an effort of nature be replaced by other mouths, yet, in the meantime, the growth of the plant is suspended until the new ones are formed. This is probably one of the causes of so much short corn. The plow should do its work in the preparation of the ground before planting, and the better it is done at that time, even if the subsoil is reached, the greater success is secured. But after the plants are fully up, and the roots are spreading out beyond the hill, not only will these roots be injured by the plow, but the manure in the ground is at the same time turned up to the surface; being thus exposed to the atmosphere, its virtues are carried off, to a considerable extent, and lost by the crop.

If your land has been thoroughly and deeply plowed, your manure carefully scattered upon it, and turned under by the plow and well harrowed and rolled, deposit your seed with manure in the hill. As soon as the plants come up and are, say four inches high, plow a furrow from either side and return it again, letting the hands follow with hoes to relieve the plants that might be covered up, and clear off the weeds and grass from immediately around them, and the work for the plow is at an end; all working afterwards is to be done by the cultivator and the hoe, and whenever the crop requires it; sometimes it will need three workings, and if severe drought ensue before the time of putting it by, it may want a fourth cultivation, in order to keep the ground open for absorbing and condensing the dews.

THE SECOND SPRING MONTH—MAY.

The beautiful month of flowers is at hand, and the gardener, the horticulturist, and the farmer, must now bestir themselves for the duties of the season, for every moment is precious. We have from time to time drawn attention to the things which may now be pressing upon those who till the soil, and we hope that some heed has been paid to our hints, relative to the necessary preparations for active operations, so that no unnecessary delay may be experienced in pushing ahead the spring work—and, at the risk of repeating some advice heretofore given, we will allude to sundry matters demanding immediate attention:

Sweet Potatoes should be gotten in early in May, say by the 10th.

Pumpkins also should be in by the same time, but not in the garden—plant them in a patch by themselves, or with your corn in the field; they will draw no strength off from the corn.

Squashes, Cymblins and Cucumbers should be planted out also by the 10th of the month in the Middle States and treated generally as advised for melons; the distance of the hill for cucumbers should be four feet apart, for squashes and cymbline six feet.

Cabbage Plants should be set out as early as the ground will permit, the cabbage is a great feeder, and to secure good sized cabbages you must not spare your manure for them. We believe we have before treated on this subject, to which we now refer. If you have not supplied yourself with plants, obtain some from your neighbors, or from the market gardener or seedmen, who usually supply them. Every time your cabbage plants are worked, apply a mixture of ashes and plaster to them, or the same mixture recommended for melons.

Peas.—A few rows of peas, and also of Spinach seed should be drilled in every eight or ten days in May, to secure a continuous supply. Sow in this month for autumn and winter use.

Broccoli Seed.—This vegetable stands the winter in open culture, and might be made a field crop, as well as a garden vegetable.

Lettuce must be set out for heading, tie up such as are disposed to head, and sow seeds on your border for additional planting.

Raddish Seed should also be sown out once a week for a continuous supply.

Carrots and Parsnips put in as early as the ground will permit, for winter and spring use.

Roots and Plants should be staked up to prevent injury from winds. Pot and medicinal herb seed should be sown also, in the early part of May, and watered if the weather should prove dry.

Egg Plant seed sown first week in May, and the early plants should be set out any time between the 15th and 20th of the month.

Beans.—Drill in a few rows every ten days in May, when bean poles are scarce, it is recommended that two or three hoop poles set into the ground one foot from each other and tied together at the top, make as good a pole and perhaps better. Dwarf beans should have very warm and deep soil; sow them only two inches apart.

Asparagus, says Meehan, will do as well from seed as peas or beans, although it has been argued that it will not come true from seed, but that like rhubarb, they can be propagated true only by division of the roots.

Brussels Sprouts, Cape Broccoli and Cauliflower require the same treatment as the general cabbage crop.

Turnips—Hoe and thin out early sown turnips and put in another bed for successive use.

The Onion bed should also be thinned out.

Beets should be thinned and weeded, and your fall crop should now be drilled in.

Nasturtium seed should be sown early in May, as also Endive and Okra, for an early crop, and another sowing towards the last of the month for a late crop.

Set out your Tomato plants and sow seed for a late crop.

Sow Peppers now of the various kinds, and if you have plants sown in a hot bed set them out about the middle of the month—one foot apart.

HOW TO GATHER ASPARAGUS.—Joseph Wilson, Little Falls, New Jersey, writes: "As often as I have passed through the market places and seen the white trash that is universally sold as asparagus, I have felt vexed. From the appearance of the branches I have seen, I conclude that as soon as the stalk appears above ground a long knife is thrust into the ground and the stalk cut as deep down as possible. Now, that part of the plant below the surface is hard and tough, and consequently is a dead loss. My plan is to let the stalk grow from eight to twelve inches above ground, and then to go along the bed and snap off the stalk with the fingers, as far as it is tender and will break square off. The consequence is that the whole stalk is as tender as green pea, and can all be eaten. For my use I would not give a cent a bunch for the white stuff, however pretty the ladies may think it.

MELONS—CANTALEUPES—MUSKMELONS.

For these prepare at once a deep sandy loam bed, or as near such a soil as you may have at hand, put in the manure a spade deep, rake the ground finely every three or four feet until the bed is completed. Then for watermelons, form hills ten feet apart; before raising the hill, spread a shovel full of well rotted manure, mix it well with the soil on each spot you intend raising a hill; if you have not enough of stable or barn yard manure to spare for this purpose twenty pounds of guano mixed with two loads of mould will answer for a bed of two thousand square feet, and the same kind of manure will answer for putting at the bottom of the hills, which, when they are formed, should have applied to them a dusting composed of five parts ashes, and one part plaster, raked in; then plant six or eight seed in each hill, and pat down the surface with the back of the shovel; when the plants appear, dust them with the same mixture early in the morning until they get into the rough leaf; thin the plants out when large enough so as to leave but two vines in a hill. Keep the beds and hills clean, and the earth well stirred, drawing the earth around the roots as far as the seed leaves until the vines cover the ground. When the vines begin to make runners, toop them off close, with the fingers or scissors, which causes them to increase in strength, and to put out more fruitful runners. The watermelons should be as far apart from the cantaleupes and muskmelons as the size of your garden will admit, to avoid mixture and deterioration. The cultivation of the latter is similar to that of the first named, except that the distance of the hills for the cantaleupes and muskmelons should be six feet apart.

HOUSEHOLD RECIPES.

To Whiten Straw Hats.—Scrape stick sulphur with a knife, mix the powder to a mush with water, plaster it thickly over the straw, and place in the hot sun for several hours; brush off when dry. An easy and effectual plan.

Isinglass Glue.—Dissolve isinglass in water and strain through coarse linen, and then add a little spirits of wine. Evaporate it to such a consistency that when cold it will be dry and hard. This will hold stronger than common glue, and is much preferred.

To Take Grease from Paper.—Gently warm the parts containing the grease, and apply blotting paper so as to extract as much as possible. Boil some clear essential oil of turpentine and apply it to the warm paper with a soft clean brush. A little rectified spirits of wine should be put over afterward.

Stuffed Beefsteak.—Cut a thick slice from the round, in shape as near an oblong square as possible. Rub over it salt and pepper to taste. Make a stuffing of stale bread and fat salt pork, season with salt, pepper, sage, etc. Roll it up in the steak; sew the edges of the slice together with strong twine so that none of the stuffing may escape. Bake in a quick oven.

Home Made Ink.—The ink is a beautiful black, flows freely, and does not in the least corrode the pen. It is far superior to the usual acid inks, which will spoil the best steel pen in a few hours' use. In fact, we have no ink that we like so well as this. It is made thus: To five gallons of water, at boiling heat, add one-half pound logwood, one-half ounce bi-chromate of potash, and one-half ounce prussiate of potash. Your ink is then made and ready for use. The cost is six cents per gallon.

Washing Colored Fabrics.—"Before washing any colored fabrics," says the Scientific American, "it is recommended to soak them for some time in water, to every gallon of which is added a spoonfull of ox-gall. A tea cup of lye in a pail of water is said to improve the color of black goods when it is necessary to wash them. A strong, clean tea of common hay will preserve the color of French linens. Vinegar in the rinsing water for pink or green, will brighten those colors, and soda answers the same end for both purple and blue."

The preparation and use of rennet is highly necessary in the making of good cheese. Heat injures the rennet, and a temperature of 140 degrees ruins them, but acids do not injure them, nor do alkalies, and the freezing and thawing of runnets will do them no harm. Some manufacturers use carbolic acid instead of salt, and find it much better; ten drops of the acid should be placed in a quantity of water sufficient to cover the rennet and dry it; old rennets are said to be worth twice as much as new ones.

Cream Pie.—Two-thirds of a cup thin sweet cream, one-fourth cup of vinegar, two thirds of a cup of sugar, one egg well beaten; season with a little salt and one teaspoonful of ground alspice; bake with two rich crusts.

Pocket-book Rolls.—One pint of sweet milk, one egg and a piece of butter the size of an egg, salt and yeast as usual and work in flour as for ordinary bread. When light roll out and grease the surface, then double a piece over about the width you wish the cakes and cut them out with the dredging box lid, leaving a hinge on one side. When light bake as other rolls and they will open readily without any force, while the hinge keeps them from falling apart. They are very nice for company, or indeed any other time.

To Take Stains out of White Marble.—Take one ox gall, one wine glass of soap lees, one-half wine-glass of turpentine, mix, and make into a paste with pipe clay. Put on the paste over the stain, and let it remain for several days. If the stain is not fully removed, a second application will generally prove sufficient.

Turpentine in Ringworm.—Von Erlach and Lucke recommend spirits of turpentine, brushed over the surface, as a remedy in common ringworm.

Rice Pudding.—Wash thoroughly a tea cup full of best rice, add half a cup of white sugar, a quart of water, and the same of milk. Bake slowly four hours, stirring occasionally, except the last hour. A cup of raisins is an improvement.

Pea Soup.—When your corned beef is about half done, take it up for a short time, pour enough cold water in the pot to stop the boiling, and skim off all the fat that rises. Have ready, picked and washed, a pint or a quart of dried slit peas (as your family is large or small) put them in the pot, put back the meat, and let all boil slowly till the peas are soft and the meat done. The soup is very good, and the beef is nice to eat cold, in thin slices.

INFORMATION comes from Havana that the Spanish officials are much alarmed by the secret meetings of men who exert great influence over the volunteers on the Island, and that fears are entertained of an open revolt. Dispatches are constantly passing to and from Madrid, and those who are best informed as to the present aspect of affairs in Cuba, believe an important movement is contemplated, which will result in relieving Cuba from the control of Spain, with the full consent of the Spanish authorities.

THE President expects to make a brief visit to Missouri before going to Long Branch to spend the summer.

PERRY'S COMEDONE AND PIMPLE REMEDY.

This is the only infallible remedy known to science for that unsightly disease of the secretions known as Comedone's Black Worms on the nose and face. It also cures those disfiguring diseases, Acne and Sycosis, Red, White and Mattreated Pimples on any part of the body. It leaves the skin soft, smooth and healthy. Sold at

THE WEAR AND TEAR OF BUSINESS LIFE.

The cares and labors of business life are apt to tell severely upon the health and constitution of the ardent, energetic business man, and when the need of some sustaining agent is felt, stimulants that cause only a temporary exhilaration, and leave the system in a state of partial collapse when their first effect has passed off, are too often resorted to. As certainly as fire leaves behind it a residuum of ashes, the use of the adulterated liquors of commerce produces premature exhaustion and decay. Touch them not. Tone and regulate the overtaxed vital machinery with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. In that wholesome elixir, the alcoholic element, which is the purest derivable from any source, is tempered by the choicest tonic, aperient, anti-bilious and anti-febrile vegetable extracts and juices. To strengthen, recruit, solace and purify the system is the mission of the great vegetable specific. When the stomach is in a healthy state, the bile flows regularly, the bowels perform their office properly, and the telegraphic fibres of the nervous system are in perfect working order, an enormous amount of labor can be borne without risk or inconvenience, and the direct effect of the Bitters is to promote this vigorous condition of the functions upon which the nourishment of the body, and its power of endurance mainly depend. The great tonic and alterative is, therefore, emphatically recommended for its remarkable strengthening properties, to all upon whom the responsibilities of life press heavily, and who feel like fainting under the burthen. A lively appetite, a splendid digestion, elastic spirits, and a marvellous ability to withstand fatigue, are among the blessings justly ascribed to the renovating operation of this palatable and powerful cordial. Indeed there is nothing in the materia medica that can be compared with it.

THE EYE.

Dr. FRANKS, the celebrated Lecturer on the Eye, and Manufacturer of Patent and Improved Spectacles, has returned to Pittsburgh, and is now at the ST. CLAIR HOTEL, where he adjusts his far-famed Spectacles to defective vision from an examination of the eye alone, so as to suit equally well by day as by artificial light without fatigue, from 15 to 25 years. Dr. F. may be professionally consulted on all diseases of the Human Eye, and has a large stock of his Spectacles and Eye Glasses for sale. About 4,000 pairs of these Spectacles were sold on Dr. Franks last visit in the space of three months, giving the most entire satisfaction to all, as the medical gentlemen and citizens of Pittsburgh have by certificate testified.

LOAN
Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Co.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad is completed and running from RICHMOND, VA., to the celebrated WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, in West Virginia, 227 miles. It is being rapidly extended to the Ohio river, 200 miles further making in all 427 miles.

In its progress Westward, it penetrates and opens up to market the WONDERFUL COAL DEPOSITS OF THE KANAWHA REGION IN WEST VIRGINIA. And thus brings the superior and abundant Coals of that section into communication with the IRON ORES OF VIRGINIA AND OHIO, and the WESTERN, SOUTH WESTERN AND EASTERN MARKETS.

When completed it will connect the SUPERIOR HARBOR FACILITIES OF THE CHESAPEAKE BAY with reliable navigation on the Ohio river, and thus with the ENTIRE SYSTEM OF RAILROAD AND WATER TRANSPORTATION OF THE GREAT WEST AND SOUTHWEST.

It will make a SHORT, EASY, CHEAP and FAVORABLE ROUTE from the WEST to the SEA and will command a LARGE SHARE OF THE ENORMOUS FREIGHTS seeking transportation to the coast.

It will thus become one of the most IMPORTANT AND PROFITABLE EAST AND WEST TRUNK LINES OF RAILROAD in the country, and command a trade of immense value.

The completed portion of the Road is doing a PROFITABLE AND INCREASING BUSINESS, and is fully equal in value to the whole amount of the mortgage upon the entire Line—($15,000,000.)

The loan of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, being a FIRST MORTGAGE UPON THE ENTIRE LINE, PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENTS, WORTH WHEN COMPLETED AT LEAST $30,000,000, is therefore one of the most substantial, conservative and reliable Railroad Loans ever offered in the market, and is peculiarly adapted to the wants of Investors and Capitalists.

Who desire to make their investments with the most satisfactory assurance of POSITIVE AND UNDOUBTED SECURITY.

The Bonds are in denominations of

$1,000, $500 and $100,

and may be had COUPON or REGISTERED.

Interest Six per cent. per annum, payable MAY 1st and NOVEMBER 1st.

PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

Price 90 AND ACCRUED INTEREST in Currency, at which price they pay nearly SEVEN PER CENT. IN GOLD on their cost.

All Government Bonds and other Securities dealt in at the Stock Exchange received in exchange, at their full market value, and Bonds sent to all parts of the country, free of Express charges.

DR. WHITTIER

CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL PRIVATE DISEASES, Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhoea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produce some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.

A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, Pruritus, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.

It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.

The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.

The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who has failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Sundays 12 M. to 2 P. M. only. Office, No. 9 WYLIE ST. (near Court House) Pittsburgh.

MONEY AND COMMERCE.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]
NEW YORK, May 9, 1870.

Money is easy at 3@5 per cent on call; the supply exceeds the demand. National Bank notes are a glut and are offered free of interest for ten days if the borrower will return greenbacks. Sterling firm at 9⅜@9⅝ per cent. Gold steady, and opened at 114½, touched 114⅝, and closed at 114¾. Carrying rates 4@5 per cent. The clearances were $31,000,000.

Governments strong. Coupons of '81, 116⅜@116¾; '62, 111½@112; '64, 110⅞@111; '65, 110⅞@111⅛; do new, 113⅝@113¾; '67, 113⅞@113⅞. 10-40s., 107⅜@108. Currency, 6s, 112⅞@112⅞.

State bonds steady. Missouris, 92½; old Tennessees, 60⅜; new do., 53¾.

Railway market active and excited with an advance in prices; at the close market re-acted slightly from the highest point and actively subsided; but prices steady. The leading features were Lake Shore, Wabash, New York Central, Northwestern, St. Paul, Rock Island and Ohio shares. Prices made for these stocks with exception of Lake Shores were the highest of the season.

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, May 9, 1870.

CATTLE.

Following shows the number of cars of cattle on sale, the points at which they were shipped, and the names of the shippers:

Trauman & Lobman, Chicago	3 cars
Lowensteine & Needy, Chicago	2 cars
J. & S. Needy, Chicago	1 car
C. Boyer, Chicago	1 car
Hazlewood & Blackstock, Chicago	2 cars
Marks & Bro., Chicago	3 cars
Greenwald & Kahn, Chicago	4 cars
Haas & Kraus, Chicago	3 cars
P. Hartmen, Chicago	2 cars
E. Katz, Chicago	2 cars
M. Varner, Chicago	2 cars
L. & J. Shamberg, Chicago	4 cars
Zeigle. & Keefer, Chicago	2 cars
L. Keefer, Chicago	1 car
J. Zeigler, Chicago	1 car
C. T. Zachrick, Cincinnati	1 car
W. Weinz, Alliance	1 car
Total	35
Total last week	27

The offerings of cattle were larger than last week, aggregating 35 car loads, or about 630 head, of which number 33 car loads were from Chicago, 1 from Cincinnati and 1 from Alliance. There were not over half a dozen of country cattle on sale, against about two car loads last week, but as already shown, the number of western cattle was considerably larger. The market, notwithstanding the increased number, was strong, and by 10 o'clock the yards were almost cleared, a pretty good indication that the demand was fully up to the supply. Prices have still further advanced, as compared with last week, say 25@37½ cents per cwt, and as will be seen by reference to the report of sales, there were but very few cattle sold below 7⅜ cts, and from that up to 9 cts—the whole 630 head, would average 8@8⅛ cts per pound, which is a very high average. The quality as a general thing was about the same as last week, and the average cost ⅛ to ¼ of a cent per pound greater.

Both drovers and butchers continue to complain bitterly about hard times, owing to the great cost of stock, that they are now doing business because they are obliged to keep up their trade, and the worst feature lies in the fact that there is not much prospect of any immediate improvement; prices will not decline so long as the offerings continue so small, and it is not likely that the arrivals will be much larger until about the last of next month, at which time grass cattle usually commence to be thrown upon the market in considerable numbers. As we noted last week, the arrivals of cattle both at the Allegheny and East Liberty Yards have been unusually light this season, which is owing mainly to the fact that it costs but little more to ship from Chicago to New York than it does from Chicago to Pittsburgh, and consequently the great proportion of the cattle are being shipped east by other routes, and prices are as low relatively in New York as in Pittsburgh. This ought not to be, but such is the fact, and there appears to be no help for it.

S. Lowensteine sold 19 head good steers from Chicago, at 8@8⅜.

Haas & Kraus sold 55 head of steers from Chicago, at 7⅜@8⅜.

M. Varner 36 head Chicago good to prime, at 8@8⅜.

Rothchilds & Zeigler sold 36 head Chicago steers, at 8@8⅜.

Peter Hartman 34 head of good to prime chicago steers, at 8@8.90.

E. Katz reports having sold 24 from Chicago, at 7⅜@8⅜; 3 extra to W. Peters, at 9 cts.

L. Keefer 34 head prime steers from Chicago, at 8@9 cts.

J. & S. Needy 55 western cattle, mixed quality, at 7⅜@8⅜.

Holmes, Lafferty & Co; sold 18 head good to extra steers, from Cincinnati, at 8⅛@8⅞.

Hazlewood & Blackstock 34 head, good to extra from Chicago, at 8⅛@9 cts.

L. & J. Shamberg sold 70 head, all from Chicago, at 8@8 cts.

Wm. Werns 18, from Stark Co. Ohio, at 8⅛@8¾.

Trauman & Lobman 35 head of good to extra steers from Chicago, at 8⅛@8⅞.

S. Marks & Bro sold 54 head mixed stock from Chicago, at 7½@9 cts.

Greenwald & Kahn 70 head good to extra steers from Chicago, at 7⅝@9—sold 14 to Peter Fairley at 9 cts.

S. Kraus 15 head from Chicago, at 8@8⅜.

Chas. Boyer 17 head Chicago stock, at 8⅛@8⅜.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

There was a light supply on sale again to-day, the whole number not exceeding 650 head, which, if it was not for the extreme prices, would not more than half supply the retail trade. The market was fairly active, and the pens were almost cleared by nine o'clock, and a larger number, particularly of the better grades, could have been sold. Clipped sheep may be fairley quoted at 5 to 6½c, the latter figure only for prime 85 to 90 pound averages. There were some few wooled sheep on sale, but the great proportion of this kind now offering are of an inferior grade, and the wool is kept on as a general thing, for fear of exposure, to hide their ribs. Lambs were in rather better supply to-day and sold at from $1.75 to $4⅜ per head.

The principal cause of the offerings being so small lies in the fact that sheep are held at big prices in the country, and as pasture is good, farmers are indifferent about selling and drovers are only able to sell a limited number to the butchers at present quotation. At a reduction of one or two cents per pound, it is probable that double the number of sheep could be sold in this market.

M. Humes 50 head, sold sheep and lambs at $3⅜@4 per head.

Jacob Emmell sold 40 lambs at $2½@3; 50 sheep at $3@4 per head.

Kauffman sold 73 wooled sheep at $4.75@7.50 per head.

Adam Eckert sold 56 head common to extra lambs at $2⅜@4⅜ per head.

M. Flinner sold 29 lambs at $2.65 per head, and 70 clipped and wooled sheep at 4 to 6⅜c per pound.

M. Stakely & Bro. sold 56 lambs at $1⅜@4⅜; and 23 sheep

Sheitmantle & Stouffer sold 193 head at 5 to 6c per pound, and lambs at $2½@4 per head.

HOGS.

The hog trade in this market continues very slow, and this is usually the case at this season of the year, as the demand for fresh pork in warm weather is always light. Prices, as compared with last week, have undergone no quotable change, ranging from 9⅜ to 10⅜c for fair to good averages.

Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, May 9.—There was little animation but the stock of seasonable goods is not burthensome and prices rule steady at 14⅛@15c for heavy brown sheetings of the best make; 10⅜@11⅜c for printed calicoes; 15@17⅜ for old and new styles of mous delaines; 21⅜c for Lonsdale and Masonville muslins; 21⅜c for Wamsutta do, and 24c for New York Mills do.

ST. LOUIS, May 9.—Cattle active and stiff at 4⅜a7⅜c. Hogs steady at 8a9⅜c for good to choice.

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, May 9, 1870.

The general markets are quiet and devoid of anything new or specially important. There is a continued steady local demand for most of the leading articles and a fair business in the aggregate, while in regard to values there are no material changes. Business usually begins to slack up at this season of the year, and while there is a pretty general complaint in regard to trade being dull and unsatisfactory, we believe that, after all, it is about as good as is usual at this particular time.

ASHES—Firmer but not quotably higher. Common Soda Ash 4; refined do, 4½; Pearls, 9@9⅜; Pots, 7⅜.

APPLES—Quiet and unchanged; sales at $4@5 per bbl.

BUTTER—The market continues dull and weak and prices are still drooping; we now quote prime to choice roll at 23@25, and common is dull at 15@18.

BEANS—Continue very dull though prices are nominally unchanged, $1.50@2 per bushel, as to quality.

BROOMS—Store prices: Fancy, $5.50; No. 1, $4½; Fo. 2, $4; No. 3, $3½; Common, $2½@3.

CARBON OIL—Is firmer and higher, and we now quote standard brands, at 24 cts.

CORNMEAL—The demand is light but prices remain unchanged, at 95@$1 per bushel.

CRANBERRIES—Season about over and market almost bare.

CEMENT—Sales of Louisville cement at $3@3⅜ per bbl.

CHEESE—Sales of new Ohio Factory at 15@16; New York Dairy at 16⅜@17; and New York Goshen at 18.

DRIED FRUIT—The demand is rather better but prices remain unchanged. Apples 6@7 cts; Peaches, 7@7⅜ for quarters, and 8@9 for halves; pared, 16@18. Blackberries, 12@13; pitted Cherries, 25@28.

EGGS—Continue very dull and notwithstanding the arrivals are comparatively light, prices are weak and drooping; we now quote fresh packed at 13@14.

FLOUR—The market although firm with a steady local demand, is quiet and unchanged. The mills within the past few weeks have advanced prices about 30c per bbl, and during the same time wheat has advanced 5 to 7 cents per bushel. We continue to quote at $5@5⅜ for spring; $5.50@6 for winter, and $7@7.50 for fancy brands. Rye Flour, $5 and firm.

GRAIN—There is a steady milling demand for wheat, and the offerings continue light; we continue to quote at $1.15@1.20 for Red and $1.25@1.30 for White, as to quality. Oats dull but unchanged; 47@48 in first hands, buyers furnishing sacks; 50, on wharf and track, and 52@53, in store. Offers from Philadelphia to buy at 50, delivered free on cars. Corn is quiet but firm, and the stock in this market is pretty well reduced; ear may be quoted at 85, and shelled at 90—offers from Philadelphia to pay the outside quotation. Rye—no sales and not much offering; we continue to quote at 95@$1. Prime to choice spring barley, 85@90.

HAY—Baled is very dull and may be fairly quoted at $14 to 18, for fair to strictly prime timothy.

HOMINY—Market almost bare, but there is little or no inquiry for it; $6@6⅜ per bbl.

LIME—Is steady but unchanged. Eastern, $1.75; Cleveland, $2.25.

LARD OIL—F. Sellers & Co. report extra No. 1, at $1.30, and No. 2, at 87@88.

PROVISIONS—Market steady, and demand good but prices are without quotable change; Plain Sugar Cured Hams, 19@19⅜; Canvassed do, 19⅜@19⅜; Plain Shoulders, 13⅜@13⅜; Sugar Cured do, 14⅜@14⅜; Ribbed Sides, 16⅜@17; Clear do, 17⅜@17⅜; Lard, in tierces, 17, in buckets, 18, and caddys, 19⅜@19⅜. Mess Pork $30@30⅜. Dried Beef, 19⅜@20.

POTATOES—Continue dull and "Buckeyes" and "Goodrich's" can be had almost for a song. Sales of prime Peach Blows, in store, at 40@42.

PEA NUTS—Dull; prime Tennessee still quoted at 8@9 cts.

SEEDS—There is little or nothing doing in either Timothy or Cloverseed as the season is about over. Flaxseed, $2.15 bid—a round lot would probably bring $2.20.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, May 9, 1870.

The oil market continues strong and compared with Saturday, prices have still further advanced. The most remarkable feature we have to notice is that while refined has advanced, (since Saturday) a full half cent, crude, taking the sales reported to-day as a basis, is only up an eighth; usually the latter keeps very close to the former, particulary when the market is advancing, and how it happened that it did not keep pace with refined in this case, we are at a loss to imagine. There seems to be quite an active inquiry for refined particularly for near by months, including May and June, and what is better still, this advance has been established in the absence of speculation, and as an indication that the market is in a healthy condition, and the present movement entirely legitimate, the demand emanates almost entirely from exporters. Furthermore, letters are now here, direct from Europe, making inquiry in regard to purchasing cargoes, and the indications generally are more favorable, though not all that could be desired.

CRUDE.

The market is firm but quiet. Sale of 1,000 bbls, spot at 12⅜; and 1,000 at 12⅜. Seller June, in the absence of sales, may be quoted at 12⅜@13; and buyer all year at 14⅜@15.

REFINED.

Sale 2,000 bbls May at 28⅜, against 28 on Saturday. May and June, together quoted at 28⅜; June to August, 29 bid; August to December, 29⅜. Buyer all year, 30@31⅜.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to rise steadily under the influence of the recent rains, and there is every appearance of a good coal boat rise. Considerable rain fell yesterday, and the indications last night were favorable for more.

The Belle, Capt. J. P. Smith, departs for Brownsville and Geneva this evening at 6 o'clock, and passengers and shippers should bear this in mind. Hereafter she will leave here regularly on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings at the hour above named. The Belle is a neat and comfortable steamer, and Capt. Smith is so well known in the Monongahela Valley, that he requires no introduction to the patrons of the Monongahela river trade.

The Kate Putnam, Capt. Ed. Evans, with Messrs. Harbison and Ghriest in the office, is announced for Nashville forthwith. As will be seen by card, she will receipt freights through to Memphis and New Orleans.

The Glendale put off over 800 tons of iron ore at Wheeling, which occupied nearly three days. Capt. Hare proposes to return to St. Louis forthwith.

The Collier barges, Capt. Shedden, depart for St. Louis to-day positively, and shippers are requested to have their bills of lading down as early in the days as possible.

The Wild Duck, Capt. Anawalt, is announced to depart for St. Louis next Saturday.

The St. Charles arrived about three o'clock on Saturday afternoon and left the same evening for Cincinnati. As might be expected, she did not have much of a trip.

The Julia arrived from Zanesville, and after putting out her freight, went down to the dock for repairs. She will depart as usual this day week.

The Arlington did not arrive until after dark, having been delayed by fog on Sunday night. She will depart as usual to-day at 12 o'clock. With a single exception, she has not missed a trip since she came out and by her promptness and regularity she has won the confidence of the patrons of the trade, and this accounts for her heavy way business.

The Granite State is expected to be back from Cincinnati on Thursday, and will leave for Portsmouth on Friday at 4 P. M., and every Friday thereafter.

The Putnam had a good trip from Nashville, including 200 tons old railroad iron. She is very well adapted for the trade, particularly under the administration of Capt. Ed Evans.

The new steamer Red Wing had an excursion party of 200 from Red Wing to St. Paul and back, and she was presented with one of the most beautiful flags that ever flaunted over the waters of the Mississippi. The St. Paul Press says: She will have her full share of business on the Upper Mississippi, without regard to the opposition she may encounter.

The Bellevernon left St. Louis Thursday for Pittsburgh with 350 tons of Pilot Knob iron ore for Ashland, Ky.

—A Minnesota raft pilot said a few days ago that he had hired thirty or forty men to pull oars at one dollar per day for actual working time, with deck fare back—equivalent to about $30 per month—and says he could hire ten times the number wanted at the same price. This is much lower wages than is ordinarily paid.

—Hattie Horr is the name of the new steamer building on the Missouri opposite Kansas City. The keel has been laid upon the ways, and the timber and machinery is upon the ground. J. McAlpine, the builder of this boat is confident of being able to launch the first Kansas-built steamboat before the 1st of June.

—Capt. E. A. Sheble, Superintendent of the St. Louis and Peoria Packet Company, has chartered the steamer Beardstown to Capt. Carter, of Little Rock, to run in the Memphis and Arkansas river trade.

—Capt. John Edson has chartered the Gallatin for three months to run between Memphis and Devall's Bluff, in connection with the Little Rock Railroad.

—It is said that John Sullivan has purchased Capt. Cannon's interest in the Belle Lee.

—The Lorena was to have left St. Louis for Pittsburgh on Saturday.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ CONSUMPTION.

DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP for the cure of Coughs, Colds and Consumption.

DR. SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC for the cure of Dyspepsia and all the Debilitated Conditions of the Stomach.

DR. SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, for Diseases of the Liver or to act as a Gentle Purgative.

All of these three Medicines are often required in curing Consumption, though the Pulmonic Syrup alone has cured many desperate cases. The Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills assist in regulating the Stomach and Liver, and help the Pulmonic Syrup to digest and search through the blood vessels, by which means a cure is soon effected.

These Medicines are conscientiously offered to the Public as the only safe, certain and reliable remedy for Pulmonary Consumption, and for all those morbid conditions of the body which lead to that fatal disease. Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia are often forerunners of Consumption, and when they manifest themselves they require the most prompt attention.

The Pulmonic Syrup is a medicine which has had a long probation before the public. Its value has been proved by the thousand cures it has made through a period of more than thirty-five years, in all of which time its reputation has increased, and the most obstinate skepticism can no longer doubt that it is a remedy which may be used with confidence in all cases which admit of a cure.

If the patient will perseveringly follow the directions which accompany each bottle, he will certainly be cured, if his lungs are not too much wasted to make a cure possible. Even in cases supposed to be incurable, when friends and physicians have despaired, the use of this Medicine has saved the life of the patient and restored him to perfect health.

Dr. Schenck does not say that all cases of Pulmonary Consumption are within the reach of medicine, but he emphatically asserts that often when patients have the most alarming symptoms, such as a violent cough, creeping chills, night sweats, general debility, even to such a degree that they are obliged to lie in bed, and when they are given up by their physician, they may still be cured. No medical treatment can create new lungs, but when the lungs are very sadly diseased and to some extent destroyed, a cure may be effected by Dr. Schenck's medicine.

Also, in Scrofulous Diseases, these medicines are equally efficient. Dr. Schenck has photographs of a number of persons who have been nearly covered with running sores and now all healed up. This shows its purifying properties, which must be able to heal cavities in the lungs.

In the treatment of Consumption it is of the utmost importance to give vigor and a healthy tone to the system. Hence it is necessary to strengthen the appetite of the patient and improve the digestion. Proper nourishment is required together with such means as will make the food easily digestible. The articles most suitable for the diet of Consumptive patients are designated in Dr. Schenck's Almanacs, which are distributed gratuitously. In general, the most highly nutritous articles are to be preferred, but the digestive organs must be strengthened in order to make either food or medicine serviceable. This requirement is met by the Seaweed Tonic, and for this purpose it was designated.

When the digestive powers are put in good order, the food has its proper effect; the system of the patient is invigorated and the lungs begin to exercise their functions in a normal and healthy manner. Then the healing powers of Pulmonic Syrup will effect the cure.

Pulmonary Consumption is almost always complicated with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. Schenck's Mandrake Pills are intended to remove obstructions from the Liver and restore its healthy action. They have all the efficacy which is ascribed to calomel or "blue mass," and are warranted not to contain a particle of any mineral poison. These Pills cure the most obstinate costiveness, sick headache, piles, bilious affections, and all other diseases which arise from a torpid or obstructed condition of the Liver. One box of these pills will prove the efficacy of the medicine.

In Consumption the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are invaluable auxiliary medicines. They relieve the sufferings of the patient and assist the Pulmonic Syrup in effecting a cure. They have been found useful in advanced stages of Consumption, where the lungs are almost entirely destroyed and all symptoms according to the judgment of the physician indicated a speedy death. The lives of patients who were actually in a dying condition have been preserved for months by the use of Schenck's three great remedies.

Dr. Schenck's Almanac contains a full treatise on the various forms of disease, his mode of treatment and general directions how to use his medicine can be had gratis, or sent by mail by addressing his Principal Office, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. de27:d&T

THE DAILY GAZETTE.

HOME NEWS.

The Sermons of Dr. Douglas and Father Hickey. A large extra edition of these sermons were sold before noon yesterday, and the demand seemed unabated. A supplementary print of both sermons will be found in the first edition of this morning's GAZETTE, for sale at the Counting Room, GAZETTE Building, corner of Sixth Avenue and Smithfield street.

May seems to be endeavoring to emulate April for rainy weather.

Five common cases was all the business before Mayor Callow yesterday morning.

Alderman Bowden, of Allegheny, is off duty on account of sickness. He is not dangerous.

Hon. Thomas Howard, who has been seriously ill with nervous fever, is again convalescent.

A Meeting of the East Birmingham Councils will be held this evening in the hall of the Walton Engine house.

The members of the Union Republican County Executive Committee will find a notice to them on first page of to-day's paper.

Persons wanting Doors, Shutters, &c., made out of hard wood, walnut and ash, are referred to the card of Heflick, on to-day's first page.

For Sale.—A fine Business Stand and Dwelling attached, situated No. 73 Beaver avenue, Allegheny City. For terms enquire on the premises. 3

Larceny.—Daniel McClay was arrested yesterday charged with the the larceny of a caddy of tobacco; he is in the lock-up awaiting a hearing.

Educational.—The Central Board of Education will meet at the rooms of the Board, Lloyd's & Black's building, Fourth avenue, this afternoon.

Ice and Wagon.—We call attention to an advertisement in to-day's issue of a two-horse spring wagon and several hundred tons of pure ice, for sale.

Yesterday Mary Thompson made information before Alderman Shore against Maggie Thompson for keeping a disorderly bawdy house on Washington street.

The bridge over Pine Creek on the Western Pennsylvania Railroad is said to be in a dangerous condition from the partial caving in of the abutments on both sides.

A hearing was had yesterday in the case of officer Jerry Smith, charged before Alderman Koenig by Dr. Ernest with extortion. The accused was held for a hearing.

Criminal business in the Seventeenth ward is looking up. Deputy Mayor Nichols had ten cases before him Sunday morning—the largest number since he opened his office.

John Fitzpatrick was arrested and held for a hearing to-morrow before Alderman Taylor for threatening to cause mourning in the Ditmore family, by aiding the head, William, to "shuffle off this mortal coil."

Chief Marshal Callow has called a meeting of the Division Commanders, Adjutant Generals and aids, for to-morrow night, at the Allegheny Mayor's, to make arrangements for the procession on "Decoration Day."

Postponed.—The parade of the Duquesne Greys, which was announced to take place today, has been postponed until Tuesday, the 17th inst., in consequence of the non-arrival of some of their uniforms and accoutrements.

Family Jars.—Victor Herl made information before Justice Krehan yesterday, charging three of the Jenninger brothers with assault and battery. He alleges that they attacked and beat their step mother. They were held for a hearing.

The Cause.—The fire which destroyed the stable in the rear of Jenkins' grocery store, Federal street, Allegheny, on Saturday afternoon, was caused by boys getting into the loft and smoking. The loss was $200, fully covered by insurance.

A row occurred at a pic nic at Eberhardt's Garden, Troy Hill, yesterday afternoon. Two of the participants, Peter Snyder and Peter Aughenbaugh, were arrested and locked up for a hearing this morning. No person was particularly damaged.

Waylaid.—Victor Auth made information before Justice Heisel yesterday, charging Conrad Behn and Patsey DeMarsh with assault and battery, in which he alleges that they laid in wait for him, and beat him severely. The accused were arrested and held for a hearing.

Bank Election.—The stockholders of that flourishing institution, the American Bank, will hold their annual meeting at their Banking House, No. 80 Fourth avenue, this day, between the hours of eleven and two o'clock, for the election of a Board of Directors to serve during the ensuing year.

Throwing Stones.—Philip Rolleather made information before Justice Heisel yesterday, charging Charles May with disorderly conduct. He alleges that Charles and other boys amuse themselves by throwing stones at the schoolhouse in which he is teaching. Charles was arrested and held for a hearing.

John Long yesterday appeared before Alderman Koenig in a state of fearful agitation, caused by the threatening demonstrations of Frederick Miller, who expressed a determination to dislocate the Long neck. The Alderman instructed his police to look after Frederick, who, when arrested will be dealt with according to law.

Out of Season.—Winter storms are not only out of season, but Justice Heisel thinks them out of order, or, in other words, disorderly at this season of the year; and being of that opinion when informed on oath of Catharine Free, that William Winter had been raising a storm and acted in a disorderly manner, he issued a warrant for his arrest.

Broomed.—Emma Ritsel and Edward Finch are neighbors, and Edward's children annoy Emma, and, according to the allegations of Edward made to Justice Heisel, Emma struck them with a broom. Mrs. Finch interfered, and was also broomed by Emma. Justice Heisel issued a warrant, upon which Emma was arrested and held for a hearing.

The attention of the Street Commissioner is called to the fact that the pavement on the northwest corner of Federal street, Allegheny, near the crossing of the Fort Wayne road at that point, is in a very bad condition, and unless repair is made shortly, some damage may result which might involve certain persons in trouble not easily remedied.

The thirty-sixth anniversary of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Orphan Asylum will be held this afternoon at three o'clock at the Institution on Ridge street. The annual reports will be read, followed by interesting exercises by the children. The occasion will be one of deep interest to the friends of the noble charity, and a cordial invitation to all is extended.

Bock Beer.—William Disch and John Hollinger had been indulging in several glasses of Bock beer, yesterday, on the South Side, when a difficulty occurred between them. William alleges that John struck him on the head with a beer glass. Justice Heisel, who was called upon by William, issued a warrant for John, who was arrested and held for a hearing.

Likely to be Installed.—Some time since it was stated that Rev. Mr. Fulton, of Indiana, was not likely to accept the call extended to him by the Fourth U. P. Church, Allegheny. We are informed, however, that there is a good prospect that ere long he will be installed as its pastor, as it is reported that the call has been forwarded to his Presbytery and has by him been accepted.

The Volksblatt says the first German Masonic hall in the United States, is that which is about to be built by the Jefferson Lodge on East Lane and Liberty street, in Allegheny. The corner-stone laying will take place on the 26th inst., to be preceded by a procession from Masonic Hall, led by D. D. G. M. A. M. Pollock, which promises to be a grand and imposing demonstration.

On a Tare.—There is a certain lot on Pine street, which, until a few days ago, was surrounded by a neat fence. The fence is not there now, and its removal has caused some litigation. The owner of the property, John Francis, charges Mrs. McCandless with tearing it down, out of a malicious spirit. Alderman Koenig has issued a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. McCandless.

Gratifying Announcement.—The public generally, and housekeepers in particular, especially those in want of a Looking-glass, will be both gratified and benefited to know that T. H. Chapman, wholesale jobber in Looking-glasses, has opened a full line of glasses at retail, and will sell them at from twenty-five to thirty per cent. less than any other house in the city, at No. 43 Market street, two doors below Third avenue. 6

Felonious Assault.—Joseph McMannus made information before Alderman Herron, yesterday, against James Lowry for felonious assault and battery. The parties reside in the Twelfth ward. They had a street fight, when knives were drawn, and one of them cut, which resulted in the information. The accused was held for a hearing, but at the time the prosecutor failed to appear, and the case was dismissed.

Plenty Yet.—Patrick Walsh and Micheal Mayer flew to the law yesterday to obtain redress for their wrongs. They had a fight in the street and each was badly punished. Cross suits were entered before Deputy Mayor Nichols for assault and battery, and the defendants held for Court. Then the Magistrate imposed upon them each fines for disorderly conduct. So ended the case.

It was reported yesterday that Rev. Father Gibbs, of St. Mary's Church, Seventeenth Ward, while stepping off a train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, at a station some distance from the city, had missed his footing and fell between the cars, his right leg being crushed so badly that it had to be amputated. We were unable to learn of his condition last night, as he has not yet been brought to the city.

Playful.—Yesterday afternoon a colored youth in a playful humor and with a full load of whisky, entered the Allegheny market house, and observing that one of the butchers had left his stall, deliberately spread himself at length across the meat which lay spread out for customers. He was enjoying a quiet nap on his downy bed when a policeman entered, interrupted his dreams and conveyed the festive dreamer to the lockup. This morning he will likely be in a condition for disposal.

Alleged False Pretence.—Alderman Thomas had a case of false pretence before him yesterday. R. F. Davis made information charging S. C. Bonham of Monongahela, with obtaining groceries from him to the amount of ninety-two dollars by representing that he was lessee of a lot of ground in Washington county, upon which he was raising a crop for market, and that when this was sold, the bill would be paid—all which it is alleged was fictitious. The accused was brought from Monongahela city yesterday and jailed for a trial.

THE ABORTION CASE.

Application for a Reduction of Bail—Barney Schultz on the Stand—His Testimony—The Bail not Reduced.

An application was made in the Quarter Sessions Court yesterday, Judge Sterrett on the bench, for a reduction of bail in the cases of Barney Schultz and Dr. Hewett, two of the defendants in the abortion case, an account of which we published previously. The Alderman fixed the bail in the case of Schultz at $8,000 and held Dr. Hewett in the sum of $10,000, in default of which both were committed to jail. Dr. Hewett was represented by Mr. Pollock, Mr. Powers appeared for Schultz, and District Attorney Pearson represented the Commonwealth.

Mr. Pollock stated to the Court that the testimony was not of such a character as to warrant the magistrate in fixing the bail so high. With the permission of the Court he would read the report of the hearing before the Alderman from the Dispatch.

District Attorney Pearson said he had not read the report, and could not vouch for its correctness, but he had no objections to its being read.

The report was then read.

The District Attorney said that it was not a full report; that some of the most important points in the testimony had been omitted, and he referred to several. Mr. Pollock said he had nothing further to offer.

SCHULTZ'S TESTIMONY.

The District Attorney called Barry Schultz, who after being sworn testified as follows:

I am a citizen of Iowa; am engaged in the patent right business. Was acquainted with Isabella Wemer; first met her in January last at Newville, Indiana county. I know Dr. Hewett; he resides in this city. Mrs. Wemer was boarding with Mr. Fleming in Newville when I became acquainted with her. After I became acquainted with her she told me she was enciente, and asked me if I could do anything for her; I told her I could not, that I was not in that business. She said she had been deceived by a man under promise of marriage, and that she would sooner die than suffer exposure. She said there were doctors in Pittsburgh who could fix the matter if she could only find them. I suggested to her to leave home and stay away until after the child was born and then return. She said she had no money to defray her expenses. My business called me to Pittsburgh frequently, and she asked me to find a doctor and have him come out and see her. I at first refused; I told her it was a business I did not like to engage in, and that I was a stranger in the county and did not want to get into trouble. She plead with me until I consented to make inquiry about a doctor. I came to Pittsburgh about the middle of February and made inquiry about a Doctor; and was directed to Doctor Hewett. I called on the Doctor and stated the case to him; asked him what he would go out and do the job for, and he agreed to go for $50. He asked me if she had the money. I told him I did not know, but if he would go he would get his money. He consented to go, and we took the train and went out to Blairsville together that evening. Next day we got a buggy and drove to Newville, where Dr. Hewett saw Mrs. Wemer. He was in the room with her, and after he came out he told me he had performed an operation on her, and it would be all right now. Mrs. Wemer had but thirty dollars, and she handed it to me, and borrowed twenty dollars from me to pay Dr. Hewett. I gave him the money and she left. In a week or ten days afterward I wrote to him at the request of Mrs. W., and he returned and performed another operation. I was not in the room, but he told me after he came out that he had done so, and that he thought it was all right now, but if it was not for Mrs. Werner to come to the city. A few days afterwards I received a letter from Mrs. W. stating that the operation had not accomplished the end, and requesting me to go to Pittsburg with her. Mr. Fleming brought the letter, and gave it to me in the hotel in Blairesville. After reading it I threw it in the fire and burned it in his presence. I told him that I would have anything more to do with the business. He said she had commenced it and paid the money, and might as well go through it. I told him I had already spent a good deal of money for her, and if her friends would not help her they must not expect a stranger to do it. He said if I would hire a horse and buggy and bring her to the train, he would pay for it, and I agreed to do it. I got the buggy and brought her to the hotel, and he met me and gave me five dollars. We came to Pittsburgh and I got a hack at the depot and we went to the Robinson House; left Mrs. Wemer there, and went up and saw Dr. Hewitt. He accompanied me to the hotel and saw Mrs. Wemer, and while there made arrangements to take her to his own house; said he would go up and have his wife prepare a room and come back for her. He left and in about an hour returned and took her away with him. I did not go with them but I called to see Mrs. Wemer at Dr. Hewett's house, either that evening or the next day; called several times afterward and took supper with the Doctor; I remained in the city three or four days and then went back to Blairsville. I heard that Mrs. Wemer wanted to see me eight or ten days afterwards and came to the city again and called to see her. I was present once, when Dr. Hewett performed an operation on her; was present at her request. Some time afterwards heard that Mrs. Wemer was dissatisfied and wanted to go home; called to see her, and she told me that Dr. Hewett had operated on her ten times in all, and that another man had been called in who she did not know; who performed an operation which proved successful. She said she wanted to go home; I thought she was not able to travel, and Mrs. Hewett said she was not able to go out; Dr. Hewett said she was and as she wanted to go home very much I consented to take her. The remaining portion of his testimony did not differ from what has already been published.

Judge Sterrett stated that he could see no reason for interfering with the bail as fixed by the magistrate. There was certainly no reason why it should be reduced, and there was no motion to increase it.

The accused were then remanded to jail.

THE COURTS.

United States Circuit Court—Judges McKennan and McCandless.

MONDAY, May 9.—Hon. William McKennan was introduced to the members of the bar of this city by Judge McCandless, and took his seat upon the bench for the first time in this city since his appointment as Circuit Judge.

The Issue List was then called, and the causes ready noted for trial.

Decrees pro confesso were entered in some eighteen cases in which E. A. L. Roberts, inventor of the oil well torpedo, was the complainant, and in which the respondents sought to obtain injunctions against parties infringing on his patent rights.

The case of Luther C. Cruser vs. the Kittanning Coal Company, et al., was continued by consent.

The cases of John C. Bryan vs. Fisher, Norris and Co., and J. C. Bryan et al. vs. same, in equity, were ordered to be heard at Williamsport.

Court then adjourned until Tuesday morning.

District Court—Judge Hampton.

MONDAY, May 9.—The cases of Wm. A. McMannus vs. Allegheny Valley Railroad, and Hugh Trax vs. same defendants, were taken up and tried together. They were actions to recover damages for injuries alleged to have been sustained by plaintiffs in consequence of neglect of defendant. Plaintiffs got on the train on defendant's road at eleven o'clock, P. M., in April, 1868, to go to Sandy Creek. The train stopped at Sandy Creek station, but they did not get off. The conductor, on learning that they were still on the train, pulled the bell in order to stop a second time, but before the train stopped they jumped off and rolled over an embankment. On trial.

TRIAL LIST FOR TUESDAY.

1 Meldrum et ux. vs. Mellon.
2 Kepple vs. McClurg.
3 Klonk et al. vs. Holden et al.
5 Jacobs vs. Roedelheim & Offelder.
9. Sheppard vs. Schomaker.
19. Barton vs. Black.
11. McRoberts vs. Black.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Sterrett.

MONDAY, May 9.—The first case taken up was that of the Commonwealth vs. Leonard Brucher, indicted for felonious assault and battery, H. Hustead prosecutor. The facts of the case were as follows: About the 14th of February last a party had assembled at "Bedford Hall," Birmingham, and during the night a sesious riot or row ensued, in which one man was fatally and another seriously wounded, and the prosecutor, who is constable of the borough, interfered to quell the row when the defendant, who was one of the proprietors of the house, as the prosecutor alleges, fired several shots from a pistol at him from the second story window, two of which took effect on his person. Verdict of not guilty.

The next case taken up was that of the Commonwealth vs. Patrick Dargon, indicted for selling liquor without license. It appears from the testimony that an eating-house license had been granted to Ellen Dargon, the wife of Patrick, under which she was entitled to sell ale. The Court stated that the commissioners had no right to grant a license to a married woman, but that question could not be raised in this case. Verdict of not guilty, and county to pay the costs.

The next case taken up was that of the Commonwealth vs. James Johnson, indicted for forgery, George S. Head prosecutor. Defendant was charged with forging the name of Robert Johnson as endorser to a promisory note for the sum of two thousand dollars.

Also, an indictment against the same defendant, for forgery, in which Robert Grier was prosecutor, in which the defendant, it was alleged, forged the name of Robert Johnson to a promisory note for the sum of $1,500.

Defendant plead nolle contendre in both cases, and was remanded to jail for sentence.

In the cases of the Commonwealth vs. Robt. Ramsey and same vs. W. F. Kaiser, indicted for selling liquor without license, nolle pros was entered on payment of costs.

TRIAL LIST FOR TUESDAY.

239. Commonwealth vs. Hugh Barns.
317. Commonwealth vs. J. Parker Sweeney.
208. Commonwealth vs. Wm. Merryman.

199. Commonwealth vs. Peter Wilbert.
192. Commonwealth vs. Thomas Smith.
167. Commonwealth vs. John McClarran, (three cases.)

Common Pleas—Judges Stowe and Collier.

MONDAY, May 9.—The first case taken up was that of James Stewart vs. Dickson, Stewart & Co. Action on the case to recover damages alleged to have been sustained by plaintiff. The defendants are proprietors of coal works in Versailles township, where it appears they were constructing a trestle work over which to transport coal, at which plaintiff was working, and while thus engaged a portion of the trestle upon which plaintiff was working fell, inflicting serious and permanent injuries upon him. On trial.

TRIAL LIST FOR TUESDAY.

CHURCH HOME.

Report of the Board of Managers to the Trustees and Corporators of the Church Home Association.

In presenting to you this, eleventh annual report, we think it proper to begin by offering thanks to our Heavenly Father for all his mercies and benefits during the past year, to us, and to those helpless ones that He has intrusted to your care. All the inmates of our Church Home, young and old, have enjoyed, in a remarkable degree, the blessing of almost uninterrupted good health; no sickness having occurred during the entire year, with the exception of a few colds caught during the inclement and changeable weather of March. Means sufficient (with careful management and prudent economy) have been given us to carry on our work of love, and to supply all those dependent upon us, with plenty of good, wholesome food, and comfortable raiment. Our family has averaged seventy persons; this comprises officers and servants. We have now 66 inmates. Of these, 55 children and 11 adults remain to be provided for. 27 of these children are soldiers' orphans, for each of which we receive from the State the sum of $105 annually, without which addition to our income we could hardly see our way clear in meeting the expenses of the year. We have placed in good homes two boys and one girl, and have returned one boy to his mother, at her earnest request and after she proved to our satisfaction her ability and competency to take the charge of him. Six of these soldiers' orphans have been transferred to more advanced schools, and six have been transferred to us. It requires between $5,000 and $6,000 a year to carry on our Institution, and it can easily be seen that a considerable sum must be raised by collections, subscriptions and donations to suffice for all expenses. We lost considerable during the quarter ending February 28th, through delays in transfers after the orders were issued to us. From our festival last June we realized about $1,300 00, (as shown in the Treasurer's report) which is not quite so large a sum as that realized in previous years, and we would take this opportunity to call the attention of all good church people to the coming festival, which will be held on the 9th of June next, and earnestly beg from all some contribution to the fancy table, supper tables, or money to furnish material for either. We have now the whole building heated by steam, which was expensive in its introduction, but which has amply repaid us in making the house comfortable in every part, and no doubt has in a great measure contributed to the general good health before spoken of.

We are indebted to Mr. Pitcairn for the use of his omnibusses, which he kindly allowed us for the conveyance of the children to the church at the anniversary meeting, and back again to the Home; also to Mr. McKay, of St. James' church, for 500 bushels of coal, donated by him last winter, and to the Sewing Society of Trinity church for about 200 garments made and donated by them. All such kindness and liberality is truly appreciated.

We are pleased to have this opportunity to thank all those who with their kind offerings helped to make Christmas day a day of rejoicing to all in the Home, especially the little ones, who being secluded from the outer world, see little or nothing of its pleasures, and who look forward to any holiday with peculiarly pleasing anticipations. A Christmas tree arranged, and hung with presents, an ample Christmas dinner, Church services, a visit from the Bishop and some others interested in the Home, combined to make it to them altogether a day to be long remembered.

We would, on this occasion, express our regret for the resignation and departure of our late Secretary, Mrs. Crittenden, who for so many years ably and faithfully fulfilled her duties in that capacity, and devoted herself so earnestly and heartily to the work which she felt was assigned her by her Lord and Master. And while yielding a hearty welcome to the new managers who are now with us in this work, we can but regret the circumstances that took from us those faithful ones that were formerly associated with us in our work.

Our present Matron, Miss Behan, has been with us since April, 1869, and during that time has shown a deep interest in all those over whom she is placed, and has exerted herself faithfully and untiringly in carrying out our wishes with regard to them.

In our teachers we have not been so fortunate, having made several changes during the year. We have to record one death, that of Mrs. Nock, who lived to near the threescore and ten years allotted to the life of man, and who died suddenly on the night of our last festival, from disease of the heart. We desire to express regret for our late Chaplain, the Rev. Wm. P. Ten Broeck, who was so endeared to all connected with the Home; while we give especial thanks to the Rev. Abel Kerfoot, who, in addition to his many pressing duties, gave us so cheerfully his valuable services until such time as we were fortunate enough to secure those of our present Chaplain, the Rev. W. H. Roberts, who has already won the hearts of all at the Home, and to whose visits they look forward with great pleasure. We are also under obligations to Dr. Hanna for gratuitous services rendered throughout the year. While thanking all those who have remembered us in the past, we would earnestly request the clergymen of our different churches to speak frequently of this, our Church institution. To preach a sermon and take up a collection in aid of its funds once in a year, as well as to enjoin upon all the members their duty of subscribing annually to this church work in their midst.

We earnestly pray that the Lord may put it into the hearts of all His people to give freely, cheerfully and liberally; and we extend a cordial invitation to all to come and see how their money is expended, and how much comfort and happiness it bestows on the helpless and homeless. The Matron would take great pleasure, at any time, in showing through the institution all those who feel interested in providing a Home for helpless childhood and infirm old age. And those that have contributed to this object would be made happy themselves, in seeing the happiness and comfort that they have assisted in bestowing upon others, and would feel that by so doing they had called down from heaven blessings upon themselves and their families.

Respectfully submitted,
C. E. LEONARD, Secretary.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—Mr. Edwin Adams, the popular tragedian, commenced an engagement at the Opera House last evening, when "Hamlet" was presented. To say that Mr. Adam's personation of this character was good would scarcely be doing him justice, as he has but few equals. This evening "The Lady of Lyons" will be presented with Mr. Adams as "Claude."

CITY HALL.—The Mercy Hospital Fair, at City Hall, which has been the centre of attraction for amusement and pleasure seekers since its commencement, will continue through the present week. The vote on the elephants showed Colonel Swearingen largely ahead.

THE RINK.—Hundreds of persons visit the Allegheny Rink nightly, so great are the attractions at St. Peter's fair.

ATTRACTIVE ENTERTAINMENT.—Friday evening of this week the pupils of Mrs. Slack Davis' school will give another of their popular entertainments at Lafayette Hall. The programme consists of a number of fancy dances, light gymnastic exercises, and a pretty little play, "The Heiress: or the Mystery of the Pearls." Heretofore these entertainments have been very attractive and interesting, and that of Friday evening will doubtless be no exception. The performers have been training for some time, and every arrangement has been made for the complete success of the exhibition. The tickets may be had at the music stores, or of any participant.

Episcopal Church Home.

The annual meeting of the Church Home Association was held on Sunday evening at St. Peters Church.

Rev. D. C. Page, D. D., Senior Presbyter of the Diocese, in the absence of the Bishop, presided. The report of the Secretary was read by Rev B. F. Brooke, of Christ's Church, Allegheny, and the Treasurer's report by Rev. Jno. Scarborough, of Trinity Church. The inmates of the Home, about seventy in number, were in attendance until the close of the evening service, retiring before the reports were read, and before the sermon, which was preached by Rev. J. H. Egar, Rector of St. Peter's Church, and was listened to by a large congregation with earnest attention. We have rarely heard the doctrines and duties of charity so ably presented, so clearly elucidated, or in language at once so compact and convincing. We are promised a copy for publication. We have been furnished only with the Secretary's report, which we publisn elsewhere in this issue. Commending the subject so gracefully and eloquently presented by Mrs. Leonard to the careful perusal and cordial sympathy of our readers.

In Memorium.

The following preamble and resolutions relative to the death of E. F. Whitmore, were adopted at a meeting of Hays Post No. 3, Grand Army of the Republic, of this city, of which he was a member:

WHEREAS, God in his mysterious Providence has taken away from us our Comrade, E. F. Whitmore, whose kindness of heart and genial spirits had endeared him to us, be it, therefore,

Resolved, That we tender to his family our sympathy in this their hour of sorrow.

Resolved, That in token of our regard for our brother, we wear the usual mourning badge of the order, and drape the hall of Hays Post No. 3 in mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records and a copy transmitted to the family of our deceased Comrade, and also that they be published in the daily papers of this city.

By order. J. F. HUNTER, P. C.
J. C. PURDY, Adjutant.

Going to Europe.

Our much esteemed and highly respected journalistic friend, H. J. Murdoch, Esq., one of the editors and proprietors of the United Presbyterian, and a most worthy gentleman, will sail from New York, in the City of Brooklyn, for Europe, on the 4th of June proximo. Mr. Murdoch will be accompanied by his estimable lady, and their children, and some ladies of their household. They expect to be absent about four months. We wish them a prosperous and pleasant tour, and a safe return.

Daniel Wilson, Esq., father-in-law of our esteemed fellow-townman, Mr. William M. Gormly, will sail on the same day and in the same boat, and will be accompanied by his accomplished daughter. Mr. Wilson's son is now making a tour through Europe and the Holy Land, and it is expected that he will join the party on their arrival in England.

Felonious Assault and Battery.—William Roher, made information yesterday before the Mayor charging Joseph Smaltzer with felonious assault and battery. He alleges that he was sitting on a step on Carson street, Birmingham, when the accused came along, and took a dollar out of his pocket, and when he remonstrated, the accused attacked him with a knife, inflicting several serious wounds. Smaltzer was arrested and committed to jail in default of bail for his appearance at the next term of Court.

HOMICIDE.

A Man is Thrown From an Infamous Den Down a Flight of Stairs and Almost Instantly Killed—Escape of the Supposed Murderer.

Last night about eleven o'clock, a man named Patrick Collins, driver of an express or delivery wagon, met his death in such a manner as to warrant the belief that he was murdered. It seems that he had been drinking liberally during the evening and had grown intoxicated. About nine o'clock he visited the vile rum hole where his death occurred, kept by his brother-in-law, one Pat McCarroll, at No. 28 Third avenue. Here, after drinking considerably, he grew quite drunk and was repeatedly urged by his brother-in-law and sister-in-law to go home. At half-past ten he left the saloon with the avowed intention of going to his family. Instead of doing so he merely stepped into the hall door adjoining and went up stairs to the apartments rented by a prostitute named Carrie Jones. In half an hour after he was heard to fall down the stairs, which are rather steep, having seventeen footboards. McCarroll, attracted by the noise, rushed out and carried the man into the saloon, where, in a few moments and before medical aid could be summoned, he died. Subsequently, as is stated, two men named Daniel Kerr and John Nicholson came down from Carrie Jones' room, called for a drink and left, since which time they have eluded the search of the police.

Lieut. Campbell, on receiving word of the supposed murder of the man, at once dispatched a part of his squad to search for Nicholson and Kerr. Subsequently Carrie Jones, who was preparing to take a walk, was arrested and confined in the tombs. She maintains a reticence on the subject, and says that all she knows about the matter is that she couldn't have knocked the deceased down, and she supposes that he was sitting on the top stair next the door of her chamber, when he fell down stairs. At the tombs she expressed no desire for bail, as she wanted to wait to see Nicholson, who is supposed to keep her, brought in. She certainly knows more about the cause of the man's death than she will tell, and admits that Nicholson and Kerr were in her room when Collins was killed.

The deceased had on his right temple a fearful looking gash as though cut with the blow of a blunt instrument or weapon. He was otherwise bruised about the face and neck, the wounds and contusions being such as could hardly have been sustained from the fall.

When the man was first picked up our reporter was passing the place and entered the saloon, where a rough lot of customers, depraved black and white men and women were gathered at the bar. The sister-in-law of the dying man said something to the effect that she had heard Nicholson swear when Collins was going up stairs that he would kill anybody who came up to that room, and that he, Nicholson, had struck him. On returning subsequently, our reporter was receiving particulars from the same woman, who was frankly talking when McCarrol rudely interfered and made her keep quiet. After the two had conversed in the Irish language, or some other unintelligible gibberish, the woman said she had seen nothing, heard nothing, and knew nothing. It is presumable that the man was struck and knocked senseless above and then as he did not recover his senses was thrown down the flight of stairs. Who struck him or threw him out is a mystery which the authorities will to-day probably unravel. It may be possible, but not probable, that the deceased was not foully dealt with, and before forming judgment as to the complicity of the men, one of whom at least, circumstances point strongly to as the murderer, we must await the testimony at the inquest to be held to-day.

The deceased was married and resided on Redoubt alley near the Point. He leaves a wife in a delicate condition, and two children. He was about thirty-seven years of age.

The house where the supposed murder was perpetrated is a den of the worst character frequented by the vilest and most degraded specimens of humanity. Even while the corpse, a fresh victim to intemperance, was laid out upon the floor of the den, two prostitutes, one black and the other white, entered together to see the ghastly spectacle, and with a laugh turned to the counter and called for drinks. In justice to the host we would say that he refused to sell them just then and with a wicked oath so announced the intention over the body of his dead friend and departed customer. If there is any possible way of revoking the license of this awful sink of iniquity let it be done, for it is a disgrace to the neighborhood and the city at large.

Musical.

Last evening a very pleasant private musical soiree came off at the residence of Mrs. Ida A. Biederman the accomplished musical instructress, No. 33 Seventh avenue. There was in attendance a select company of friends who passed the evening delightfully in the enjoyment of a musical programme embracing selections from some of the best masters. Duets, vocal and instrumental, songs, sacred music, instrumental renderings and a variety of brilliant gems made up the exercises which would have been well received even in a more public entertainment.

Among the selections which especially received the approbation of the company was a vocal duet from "Martha," by Profs. Benitz and Bussman, "The Alphorn" on the flute by Prof. Guenther, and the "Conzertus" of Mendelssohn by Mrs. Biederman. The last was an especially difficult performance, but the manner in which it was rendered evidenced that the lady was at home with such selections. The entertainment was happily concluded with an elegant supper, a feature of the occasion which the guests did not fail to appreciate. Shortly before midnight the company separated, after an evening of rare pleasure.

In giving the opinion of Dr. Gross in yesterday's issue we should have said that he, at his first visit, considered the disease under which Mr. McClean was laboring was dyspeptic neuralgia, that he had no cancerous tumors of the abdomen, and that the swelling of the left side was merely a contraction and hardness of the left rectus muscle.

FIREMEN'S ASSOCIATION.

On Its Last Legs—Report of the Treasurer—Election of Officers.

A regular quarterly meeting of the Pittsburgh Firemen's Association was held yesterday (Monday) evening, May 9, 1870, at half-past seven o'clock, President W. C. McCarthy in the chair.

The prevailing impression among firemen was that this would be the last meeting of this useless institution, which for years past has been of but little consequence, inasmuch as the volunteer fire department, from which it had its origin, has ceased to exist. But it would not die, at present at least.

The Secretary called the roll, when the following members answered to their names: Messrs. McCarthy, Wilson, G. Wilson, W. J., Sims, Johnson, Irwin, Cupples, Torley, Rush, Ferguson, McKee, Reynolds, Smith, Roberts and Paisley.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

Mr. Joseph Irwin, Treasurer, presented his report, as follows:

Balance on hand May 10, 1869	$199 61
Paid out during the year	46 00
Balance on hand	$153 61

The report was received.

Mr. Torley presented the following bills, which were ordered to be paid: Salary to Jas. McGaffin, janitor for one quarter, $5; salary of S. T. Paisley, Secretary for one year, $20.

Mr. McCarthy said that if the Association adhered to the regular order of business, the first thing in order would be to finish up the business of the past year.

Mr. Ward thought that it was useless for the Association to struggle for an existence any longer, it was of no consequence and had not been for years. It was not recognized by Councils or by any other department of the city government.

Mr. Sims moved that the Association adjourn for the purpose of reorganizing. The motion was adopted by a vote of 9 yeas to 4 nays.

Mr. Torley moved a temporary organization by calling W. C. McCarthy to the Chair. Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Sims Mr. S. T. Paisley was elected temporary secretary.

Mr. McCarthy announced that the first business in order was the election of a permanent President.

Mr. W. C. McCarthy was nominated and the association had ballotted when M. Cupples took exceptions to the proceeding. He thought under the rules the first business in order after the temporary organization was the receiving of credentials of new members.

The chair said the point was well taken and called for the credentials, which were received and read, the only new member being Mr. McKelvey from the Independence.

The credentials were received and the members invited to seats.

The roll was then called, after which the Chairman announced the next business in order to be the election of permanent officers.

This was objected to by some of the members.

Mr. McCarthy stated that if the Association should adjourn sine die without electing officers and a Chief Engineer, the Fire Department would be without a head, that the Paid Fire Department had not yet gone into operation and could not before the first of next month.

The Association then went into an election for officers, when the following were elected without opposition:

President—W. C. McCarthy.
Secretary—S. T. Paisley.
Treasurer—Joseph Irwin.
Chief Engineer—John H. Hare.
First Assistant Engineer—J. H. McIlroy.
Second Assistant Engineer—W. T. Roberts.
Janitor—James McGaffin.

Mr. Paisley moved that a Committee be appointed to negotiate the sale of the property belonging to the Association.

Mr. Ward amended by moving that a Committee be appointed to dispose of the property and pay the debts of the Association and report to the Association at its next meeting.

The amendment was adopted and Messrs. Paisly, Ward and Sims appointed on the Committee.

On motion the Association adjourned to meet at the call of the Committee.

Peripatetic Theologians.

Allegheny is again afflicted with a couple of peripatetic theologians. They consist of a man and wife,—she one of the Bloomer stripe, and wearing that style of raiment. Where they come from no one knows. Where they are going no one cares,—provided they depart quickly. Last evening their ministrations in the Allegheny Diamond were attended by a large crowd of men who braved the rain for awhile and seemed to enjoy the affair. The man, who appears to be in middle life, and who presents a rough exterior, clothing, countenance and all opened by a dissertation on the Golden Rule, in which blasphemy and silliness were dispensed in equal quantities. His wife followed with a song, supposed to be religious, and then addressed the crowd in a similar strain with the man on the causes of female depravity, of which she drew a fearful picture—probably a personal portrait. Thus alternating between speech and song they managed to keep the crowd together until the rain came down in torrents and dispersed them.

Sudden Illness of a Minister.

Rev. John S. Easton, D. D., pastor of the U. P. congregation at Braddock's Fields, took suddenly ill yesterday morning in the Book Rooms of the U. P. Board of Publication, on Third avenue. The disease with which he is threatened is congestion of the brain. Several ministers were present in the rooms at the time, some of whom noticed in the course of conversation that the Doctor was oblivious to matters, which from their recent occurrence, it was supposed would be fresh in his mind. One of the ministers finally procured a carriage, and the Doctor was conveyed to the residence of his daughter on Sandusky street, Allegheny, where he is now receiving medical attendance.

A Splendid Chance for a Fortune.

The Brady's Bend Oil Company propose selling oil lots in close proximity to the Mammoth Well lately struck on their premises. This well has been gaining ground since the time the oil was first struck, and promises to be a "mine of wealth" to its owners. These lots offered for sale, no doubt, contain the oily fluid in equal or greater quantities than the well now producing. Why not? The wells in this section have the very profitable quality of non-exhaustion.

Another Boarding Bill.

Boarding bills are among the most prolific sources of trouble. Deputy Mayor Nichols was called into requisition yesterday to settle a little dispute of this character. William Frauemholtz made information charging William Ritel with obtaining from him boarding to the amount of seventy-two dollars by representing that he had the contract for building a certain house, which eventually proved false. The accused was arrested and held for a hearing. Both parties are carpenters and residents of the Seventeenth ward.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Pacific and Atlantic Telegraph Company of the United States, held April 30th, ult., the following preamble and resolutions were passed:

WHEREAS, Owing to various causes fully and clearly set forth in the President's Report, now submitted, adopted, and ordered to be printed for distribution among the stockholders, it appears that there have not been earnings from the lines of the Company for the past six months, sufficient to justify a dividend.

Therefore Resolved, That no dividend be declared at the present time.

John Lauffer and Hans Bauer met in a hostile way yesterday afternoon in the Second ward, Allegheny. Lauffer described a semicircle in the air, which weakened him in the knees and compelled him to seek a recumbent position with the curbstone as a pillow. He subsequently related the circumstance to Alderman Bolster, and when Bauer was arrested it was mutually agreed, with the Magistrate's consent, to allow the court to settle the business. Bauer gave bail for his appearance at the proper time.

Ladies desire what men admire. And this little thing is Beauty. What do we say is beautiful? A transparent complexion and a luxuriant head of hair. What will produce these? Hagan's Magnolia Balm will make any lady of thirty appear but twenty; and Lyon's Kathairon will keep every hair in its place, and make it grow like the April grass. It prevents the hair from turning gray, eradicates Dandruff, and is the finest Hair Dressing in the world, and at only half ordinary cost. If you want to get rid of Sallowness, Pimples, Ring-marks, Moth-patches, etc., don't forget the Magnolia Balm. tthsT

THE prospect of abolishing the income tax is not as good as it was. Members from the country districts very generally declare that they shall not vote to repeal this tax. The returns made of the annual list of taxes on dividends, incomes, &c., show a far greater amount as compared with last spring. It appears that more persons have made returns of income for 1869. In a comparative statement of the internal revenue returns of nine months of this fiscal year, compared with the same period of the last fiscal year, it appears that there has been a gain of $20,000,000. Of this amount there has been an increase of 41 per cent. on tobacco, 26 per cent. on spirits, 35 per cent. on bankers and brokers, 41 per cent. on groceries, 18 per cent. on incomes, and 10 per cent. on gas. On fermented liquors there has been a loss of ¼ per cent., on penalties a loss of 32 per cent., on passports 28 per cent., and on unenumerated sources 35 per cent. On all other classes there has been an increase. Secretary Boutwell said he would not object to the increase of exemption from income tax to $2,000, as it would not reduce the revenue more than four or five millions. The committee favors a reduction of the tax to three per cent., but is opposed to any reduction of exemption. The proposed Senate bill, it seems, does not meet the views of the House Ways and Means Committee. They will not consent to allow the income tax to remain at the present rate, and have virtually agreed to reduce the tax to three per cent. and increase the exemption to $2,000. This will be strongly fought when it comes up for consideration in the House, but the impression prevails that it can be carried.

PLANING MILL MEN
And Others,
TAKE NOTICE!
The undersigned has letters patent of the United States for the improved construction of weather-boarding, inside lining and of wainscoting for houses. The weather-boarding, by this patent improvement, being more particularly intended for vertical use, and combines great durability and beauty of appearance; and it is so constructed as to entirely avoid the use of joint strips, and to prevent water from entering the joint of the gaping or the showing of the joints by the action of the weather on the timber.
Inside lining and wainscoting by this new method are so constructed as to form perfect panels as cheaply as by the ordinary flooring boards alone; thereby preventing the showing of the joints from any cause, and leaving no refuges for bugs.
He has also purchased the patent right of what is commonly known as the "Moulded Weather-boarding."
He has disposed of the following territorial and shop rights in Allegheny county, for both patents, to wit:
To G. A. Mundorff, the right of the territory south of the river in said county.
To McQuewan & Douglass, the right for the First ward, Pittsburgh.
To Hill, Patterson & Co., shop rights for their mill, Sixth ward, Pittsburgh.
To Alex. McClure, for the borough of McKeesport.
To Parker & Paul, for First, Second, Third and Fourth wards, city of Allegheny.
To Reed Brothers, shop right at their mill in Seventh ward, city of Allegheny.
To Dunham, Saint & Co., for the boroughs of Sharpsburg and Etna; also the townships of Shaler and Indiana.
All persons are warned against infringing upon either of said patents, and those wishing to purchase will please call, or address me, at No. 75 Smithfield street, Pittsburgh, Pa.
fe J. C. ANDERSON.

CAUTION!
The subscribers beg leave to caution Photographers against a person representing himself as an agent of their house. They have never sent any traveler among Photographers to solicit orders, their business as Manufacturing Chemists being confined to the wholesale trade in cities as much as practicable.
